THE INDEPENDENT DRAMATIC SCHOOL GRAD-UATE.

After a Term at a Dramatic School, a Young Thing with Fond Hopes of shining in the Fascinating glare of the Footlights, procured through Friendly Pull, a small Position in a stock company.

Though no Sinecure, it was an Opening that most Beginners would Jump at,—and that was What she did, at the time.

But, after several weeks of Nine a. m. Re-

Scrub ladies in the Gallery interrupted the Flow of dialogue with the swish of Brushes, and the splash of Water, and this was interspersed with Audible comment on the Sketch by the Stage Hands who Lurked in the Wings.

The Graduate was further Perturbed by the apparent Inattention of the Manager

VIII.
THE BENEFIT. (?)
A Vaudevillian of great Improvidence, and little Prominence was suddenly Gathered to his Fathers, just as he was beginning to get a small Grasp on the Ladder of Fame. No sooner had the news of his Death, and the Destitution of his wife and child reached elaborate red and green striped Shirt-front, and got his Solitaire out of Pawn so as to Loom up resplendant in his Specialty:

Willie Warble, a Sweet Singer of ballads, spent Much Money for a new dress suit, while the Boy Bungler in his Juggling act, ruined a $11 pair of Pink Flush Pants, in Extracting rabbits from Bad hen's eggs,—or Hen's bad eggs.

With Expenses too numerous to detail, the Volunteer Talent must have Invested Nigh on to $400. Added to this, the house-expenses amounted to Something, so, when the Aggregate was deducted from the Receipts of the Entertainment, there remained As much as $41 for the Family of the Improvident Vaudevillian.

On the Other Hand, Miss Highsee Booked twenty weeks on the Strength of being Seen to Advantage; besides, Willie Warble, Miss hearsals, Hurried Sandwiches at noon, Tire-some matinees, Early Dinners, Long evening performances, and Weary Wendings homeward,—then to arise the Next day and face the Same routine,—she began to be Discouraged, and decided that Stock Work did not Suit her.

Accordingly, after an unusually Hard day's Work, she Packed her Makeup Box and went home without the formality of giving Notice.

Because she had been brought there by a Mutual Friend, the Manager overlooked that little Breach of Theatrical Etiquette, and the following week she received Word that if she wished to appear in the "mob" at the next week's performances, she could report at the Stage Door on Monday morning.

To this Offer, she Foolishly sent an Airy Reply, for she Yet had a Few dollars left Over from her Dramatic School Expenses,—besides, her Graduate's Diploma had been Warranted to Get her a Good Position Anywhere.

Then too, the Previous day she had been Given the Opportunity to Rehearse in a Vaudeville Sketch. She thought how much Brighter she would Shine as the Half of a Team, than as a Unit in a Mob.

This Prospect in the Near Future caused her to feel a Trifle Independent, so she sent the Haughty Refusal that cut her Off from any Future Business with That manager.

After Long Waiting, the Vaudeville Sketch was given a Manager's Hearing one Monday morning at a Continuous house.

It was a very Trying Performance. The who Sat Sideways on the Aisle, and "hoped the thing could not Last long,"—even going so far as to Noisily Wind his Watch, which he had been consulting every Three minutes.

Sad to relate, the sketch did not Make Good, and as she was Not known to any other manager, and her Diploma had Failed to redeem the verbal promise that went with it, she made application for her former small position with the Stock company,—and found that she could Not Get it.

Tip:—Do not "burn your bridges" between yourself and a Manager; later, you may wish to cross back to him.

Another Tip:—Be a Unit in the "Mob," rather than Nothing at all.

the Rialto, than some of his Generous and Sympathetic brothers in the Profession, immediately set to work to arrange a Grand Benefit for his survivors.

It was Widely advertised and Vaudevillians on different Rungs of the Lower half of the Ladder Volunteered their Voices and Specialties for the Benefit Fund.

"Now is My chance," said some of these to themselves. Miss Lightfoot expended about $75 on a New dress in which to Do her Dance; she had heard that a Manager or two would attend;

Miss Highsee took $15 worth of Lessons to get a few extra Frills on her Voice, for this Occasion was a Good opportunity for her to Appear,—she had not been given Many, up to date;

Mr. Shuffletoe, a black face, invested in an

Lightfoot, and Mr. Shuffletoe, who had been given a Chance to show that they could Make Good, made engagements that covered several times, their expenses for the Benefit.

And,—the Big Names billed "to Appear," (and did not) received much Printing in the Papers that they had not Worked for.

Tip:—The Benefit is not Always to the "Benefited."

THE LIGHT OF LOVING EYES.

BY MONROE H. ROSENFIELD.

Light of loving eyes ne'er leave me,
In your rays are joy divine!
Tho' the passing hour may grieve me,
Having you, all wealth is mine!
Every shadow you can banish
From life's dark and dreary skies;
All the ills of mortals vanish
In the light of loving eyes!

CHORUS.

Dawn upon me, like the sunlight!
Hope and bliss in you arise;
Evermore, oh! be my one light—
Light of loving eyes!

Light of loving eyes be near me
When the day has grown to night;
Tis the presence that will cheer me—
Lift from gloom the spirit's blight.
Heav'n is in your radiant glances,
That to me send mute replies!
Every joy each ray enhances,
Sweetest light of loving eyes!

In the line which was pushing its anxious way towards the box office window of a Broadway theatre the other evening, was a tall, gawky individual whose manner gave the impression that he was not an habitual theatre patron.

"Do you think there'll be any tickets left?" said he to the stranger in front of him. "You see, I promised my girl, she's a-standing there b'the door,—that she should see this here play, an' I'm mighty feared there won't be no tickets left."

"Don't worry, you and your girl will see the play all right, just keep on moving up with the line," was the reassuring answer.

"Gimme two chairs," said he when he at last reached the front end of the line.

"Where will you have them?" asked the man at the window.

"Where hev got 'em?"

"Here are two good ones in the orchestra," was the answer.

"Don't want to sit with the musikers,—where else kin we sit?"

"Well, here are two fair seats in the parquette,—that's the best I can do," said the ticket seller anxiously looking out at the long waiting line behind the man who was delaying their progress.

"Well, we didn't come to town to sit in the Park,—we want to sit in the theater," said Rheuben, "an' you needn't make no fun o' me," he added angrily snatching the money he had put on the window-shelf.

And the waiting line moved up as he joined his girl at the door, to whom he explained that, "There was a fresh young feller at the window who's been a-guyin' me.—We don't want to see his old theater any more,—let's go car-ridin' instid." And he booked his arm into that of his girl, and led her to the street corner, where they embarked on a more economical treat.

Can the matinee girls imagine one of their idols—not a robust looking one either,—clambering down a narrow trail of the mountain side with a small boy perched upon his shoulder, and otherwise laden with the impedimenta usually accompanying a fishing trip?

Any one with a kodak could have snapped such a picture with William Faversham as central figure, had he been up in the Adirondacks not far from Lake Champlain while that popular actor was summing there.

Besides being festooned with fishing tackle of all kinds, a long-handled frypan was slung over his other shoulder, while the fish basket and other sundries were hung about his slender figure.

"Ain't you a little over-lodged, Sir?" asked Farmer Smith as the actor rased him on the trail. "Seems to me, you don't look peart 'nuff yit to carry so much."

For an answer, disproving the farmer's opinion, Faversham tossed the small boy a foot in the air, caught and replaced him on his shoulder, then with a smile of assurance, started on with a free, springing step down the mountain path to the lake.

The little seven-year old daughter of a Broadway theatrical favorite was summering with her family during the past season at Rockaway Beach.

The little thing is very particular about her appearance, taking much pride in clean muslin dresses. A couple of weeks ago, the laundress failed to appear with the basket of fresh clothes, and little Mildred was obliged to appear in the half-soiled dress of the previous day. Her brother noticing this, said:—

"Ain't you ashamed to be seen in that dirty dress?"

Mildred looked sad for a moment, then a sudden thought brightened her little face, as she said:—

"Well, my dress may be soiled, but I've just had my bath, and my human being is clean,—so there!"

James Lackaye was telling a little story of how in Washington, a certain line of his was quered, causing the gallery to "give him the laugh."

A play was being given in which some of the lines call for a prop in the way of a big old-fashioned clock, and a handsome one had been hired from an antiquary's collection.

The hands were to be placed at a quarter to nine, the clock being supposed to have stopped at that hour, many years before the time of the scene. Unfortunately, one of the stage hands had wound it up.

In the action of the play, the time is afternoon, and one of the cast, on glancing at the clock, has the line:—

"Why,—the clock cannot be right."

Then Lackaye in his part had to answer in very sad tones:—

"No, it stopped many years ago. My father wound it last. None of us have had the heart to touch it since."

At that moment the clock gave him the lie, and sonorously sounded forth nine slow strokes.

Then the gallery laughed, and not a few of the orchestra and parquette joined them.

The other day I saw a good notice of a young actress on her first appearance. It spoke of her ease and naturalness, and lack of nervousness, considering that it was such a momentous occasion,—the beginning of her career.

When congratulated upon her success, she said:—

"If ever anyone had stage fright, I had it, that night. I was at the highest pitch of nervousness. In fact, I actually do not remember one thing that I did. I was dazed, and went through the whole performance in a dream. It must have been my subconsciousness that carried me safely through."

And apropos of stage fright, Ben Ringgold, so long a favorite with theatre goers, told the other day of how fearfully Lester Wallack suffered from it at one time. Many very great actors are afflicted with it from time to time.

It was on the occasion of his first appearance after a two years' absence from the stage, following the death of his father. One would scarcely look for stage fright in so well seasoned an actor,—one so used to facing an audience.

Wallack's part was one which he had played many times before and he knew it back, but a moment before he was to go on, as he was standing in the wings near Ringgold, he grasped that actor's hand and held it to his chest.

"Just feel that, Ben. My heart thumps so, it almost chokes me."

And he went on in that nervous state, and as he afterwards said, it was fully half an hour before he was himself again.

I am told that even Joseph Jefferson often gets terribly nervous when about to go on in plays in which he has acted for years.

Many a time he has been seen talking and wildly gesticulating to himself at the back of the stage, getting into his lines and the atmosphere of his part, and trying to shake of the nervousness that oppresses him.

Last February, Lewis Morrison's agent was going through California ahead of the company, booming Morrison as "his Satanic Majesty" in "Faust."

On reaching Hanford, he made application to the local manager to provide one hundred small bill boards to be distributed on the sidewalks and corners of the city.

He was told it could not be, for it was "agin the city audience."

"That's just what I want to get up against," said the agent to himself, and I'm going to manage it some way.

He did.

Part of the "Faust" advertising consists in small black "stickers" about five inches square, on which is printed in brilliant red ink, "The Devil is Coming."

In the courtyard of the "Artesia" hotel where the busy agent registered, is a pool in which about two hundred turtles disport themselves. Guests of the hotel sometimes amuse themselves feeding the creatures.

As the agent was watching this performance, and wondering what he should do to keep up his reputation as a "live" man, an idea struck him, and after a hurried consultation with his assistant, that individual quickly went in quest of a paint store, and bought a can of varnish.

After twelve o'clock that night, two bare-footed figures might have been seen wading in and out of the turtle pool, making several journeys to the sample room of the hotel.

From time to time, batches of turtles issued from the room, and crawled back towards their habitation, or to different parts of the grounds,—and two very weary men took to their rooms to sleep the sleep of the just.

During early morning breakfast time, they were aroused from their slumbers by several piercing screams issuing from the dining room.

"My scheme must have caught on," murmured the agent, half-awake.

Hurriedly dressing to inquire the cause of the confusion down stairs, he came on the scene just as two waiters were carrying out "Dewey," the biggest turtle, and the pet of the pool.

He had been discovered under one of the tables. A young girl guest of the hotel felt something moving at her feet, and had screamed out in terror. On looking for the cause, "Dewey" was revealed with a lurid sign pasted and varnished upon his back, reading:—THE DEVIL IS COMING.

About a hundred more of the turtles carried around on their shells, the same terrifying announcement. The Prevention-of-cruelty-to-animals Society had the "Faust" agent up before a justice.

"Did you injure the turtles in any way?" asked the Judge.

"Only pasted stickers on them," was the answer.

"Did you throw them back into the water?"

"No Sir,—I let them walk out so that the air would dry the varnish," said the agent.

"Well, 'twas a Devil of a trick," said his Honor, "and there is a train for Frisco about noon, which it might be well for you to take."

Which same train the busy agent took.

Checkers.

News of the Game.

Some years ago a noted English expert stated that a book player knew just enough to lose. The editor of the column in The West Lothian Courier says: "I have been among the other giants at the international matches and at English and Scottish tournaments, and my experience is that the great ones are all crammed full of book." This is true; a great player at this age must be well up in the books and other published play.... Cooler weather is forcing them in recently at the N. Y. C. C. Chas. Kelly, Dr. Schaefer, A. J. De Freest, Jas. McEntee, Ben Coons, Geo. Stewart, C. M. Potterdon, I. Cohen, Louis Strauss, Mr. Cobb, and a half dozen others were on deck proving that checkers in New York will be lively this winter.... Harry Freedman now says that he is out of the game, as he does not care to associate with checker players. He reminds us of a former member of the N. Y. C. C. who was dropped from the roll of membership for conduct unbecoming a gentleman, when asked about it stated that he had expelled the club.... Chas. Lawson, of Switcher book fame, is now in Philadelphia and playing a strong game at that. If the gentleman could find it convenient to give New York a call the resident players would be highly pleased to meet him.

A WONDERFUL MENTAL TEST.

Jaques Inaudi gave a remarkable exhibition of his mental qualifications at a special performance on Wednesday morning, Sept. 25, at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre. Inaudi is filling an eight weeks' engagement on the Proctor circuit, and a large number of physicians and newspaper men had been invited to submit him to the severest tests. His regular performance consists of certain stated routines in mental arithmetic, but on this occasion the audience gave him examples in square and cube root, intricate mathematical combinations and difficult examples which had been previously prepared and were submitted to him for the first time. He readily answered all questions, gave correct answers to all examples, and in a general way completely astounded his audience. His mental gifts are truly remarkable. He arrives at mathematical conclusions instantly, which would take the most skillful mathematician some little time to accomplish with the aid of pencil and paper. His public exhibitions are marvelous in themselves, but at this private test he proved himself to be even more of a mathematical wonder than his stage performances would indicate.

INTER-STATE FAIR AT TRENTON.

September 30, October 1, 2, 3 and 4.

The great Inter-State Fair will be held on Sept. 30, Oct. 1, 2, 3 and 4, on the Fair Grounds, three miles east of Trenton, N. J., on the New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. As in previous years, every department will be replete with superior and instructive displays. The blooded stock exhibit will be particularly fine, and the daily programme of races contains the speediest classes obtainable. Automobile races will be novel and exciting.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to the Fair Grounds, including coupons of admission, at greatly reduced rates from stations within a wide radius, and special trains over the New York, Belvidere and Amboy Divisions will be run through to the grounds, thus avoiding street car transfer. The management of the Fair has put forth extraordinary efforts to make this year's exhibition even greater than last year's record breaking display.

Chess.

To Correspondents.

BRO. CHADWICK.—Many thanks for kindly reminiscences of our early chess days and mutual labors, in Am. Ch. World.
JOHN TAYLOR, Toronto.—You have our ardent wishes for your triumphant success.
J. W. PARKER, Chicago.—Thank you cordially for the very interesting Bulletin, and auto. note. Esto perenna.
E. B. COOK and S. LOYD.—As you were officially connected with the problem tourney of the 1st Am. Ch. Congress, we take the liberty of asking if you can give us any information that will help unravel the tangle into which Bro. Seguin's Paris correspondent has led us.
E. P. ELLIOTT, Minneapolis.—We send you a small screed which we trust will meet your approval.
P. ZOPHONIASSON, Reykjavik, via Leith, Scotland.—Thank you for the attention though we can not read "I Uppname." Still we very gladly utilize it.
BRO. SEGWIN.—Bravo! Your remarks about problem contributions are decidedly a propos. We've seen lots of them.
BRO. SPENCER.—Glad you deemed the citation so appropriate.

An End Game.

BY "OLD JAY BIRD."

The following position by our veteran contributor has features so suggestive of Herr Albin's ending below that we have pleasure in presenting it here:

at K3, K R4, Q B4, R2 at K4, K R2, K5, K R4, K14.
Black to play and win.

Explanatory.

We took the account of Herr Willmers' problems in connection with the 1st Am. Ch. Congress without examining the "Book of the Congress," not thinking it necessary to anything published by Bro. Seguin. But we do not see how the Times-Demo's correspondent can be correct. In that tourney, three problems formed a set, and Willmers' three are all in four moves; so there is no such thing as "the problem that won the first prize." However, to carry out our announcement, we here present Herr W.'s No. 1, as the most elaborate member of his set, and is, perhaps, the one referred to, as

ENIGMA No. 2,334.

The Dedication Problem.

As for this opus by Herr W., it is not in five moves at all, but, like all the prize set in four. We need not repeat its praises; if, indeed, it is the problem referred to! Since we promised to give it as our problem this week here it is. Our solvers can give such opinions of it as may seem appropriate; for we have an idea that it will now get solved.

"Parisian Chess Casualties."

Under the above title The Times-Demo gives an exceedingly interesting article from its Parisian correspondent. We give our readers that part of the article which treats mostly of Herr Kohtz, the eminent German problematist:

"Among the chess celebrities that have visited Paris this past Spring, has been Mr. Kohtz, of Kohtz & Kockelhorn, the celebrated German firm of collaborating problem composers. I had occasion to meet him, and found his conversation very entertaining and instructive. He is very fond of chess (the problem department specially), and what he does not know about that branch of the game does not amount to much. He views it from a truly scientific standpoint, and looks more to perfection in the carrying out of an idea than to difficulty. He has written a brochure on the Indian problem, which is studied from every point of view—historically, scientifically, etc. He thinks that modern composition owes much to it, and may be said to date from its publication. He considers Sam Loyd a real genius in problem composing; he also esteems F. Healey, of 'Bristol' Problem fame, and gives full justice to all those who have achieved reputations."

"But besides that he speaks very eulogistically of several others who do not seem, at least in my experience, to be so generally appreciated. He thinks Rudolph Willmers a great master of problem composition, and places him ahead of all other players. He does not forget the older composers, some of whom he considers as true precursors of the modern masters—such as D'Orville and Th. Herlin. The latter he holds in special esteem, so much so, indeed, that he has taken the trouble to form a complete collection of his compositions, about 120 in number. Herlin (better known in problem literature as 'L'Anonyme de Lille') had, he says, for his time a remarkable talent for construction, and his problems are a rich mine of ideas and combinations invaluable to later composers."

"Herr Kohtz told me a good thing about Rudolph Willmers. As will be remembered, that composer was awarded the first prize in the problem tournament of the 1st Am. Ch. Congress, '57. He is a very able and dedicated problemist in five moves, and dedicated it to the judges who had made the award. This five move was accordingly published in the 'Book of the Congress.' Herr Kohtz says it is a marvelous composition, much superior even to the problem that won the prize. It seems that Willmers did not send the solution with this problem, and the solution which is published at the end of the 'Book of the Congress,' presumably by the judges of the tournament, is no solution at all (1), but simply what the German composers call 'une deduction,' that is to say, a 'try,' which was so deceptive that it misled such men as E. B. Cook and others into not perceiving that it could be defeated! So this problem stands to this day (as far as Mr. Kohtz is aware), unsolved by American problem lovers."

Bro. Seguin adds editorially: "We think our correspondent's remarks about the dedication problem of the 1st Am. Ch. Congress will, indeed, be news to American problematists of today. What will our friend E. B. Cook, of Miron, N. J., of our venerable confreres, 'Miron,' of The New York Clipper, have to say about it? But surely Herr Rudolph Willmers kept his secret well, and in any event there is much to be pardoned to the solver of a five move problem!"

What "Miron" has to say about it is just this: "He will give the first prize problem as his Enigma next week, and this crux of a 'dedication' for his Problem, a challenge to Messrs. Cook and Loyd. He does not know what they will say; for, alas! they do not write to him any more. But if they fail to guarantee Herr Kohtz that, if our present corps tackles it, half a dozen of them will soon prove, or disprove, his assertion."

GERTRUDE RENNISON

Is a native of Norristown, Pa., her father, William Rennison, being the editor of The Norristown Times, and a singer of much local note. His daughter proved to be a musical prodigy, being able to sing operatic tunes at a very early age. Under the tuition of her father she became proficient in musical knowledge. When old enough to have her voice trained for opera she was sent to the Boston Conservatory. Graduating from that institution she went to Paris and spent four years in study there. At the end of that time she was the recipient of an honor infrequently conferred upon American singers of untried operatic experience, and sang at the Opera the roles of Elsa and Marguerite. Her first appearance in America was made with the 'Castle Square' Opera Co., at St. Louis, in November, 1900, as Bertha, in "The Prophet." Miss Rennison sings a wide range of roles, including Elsa, Marguerite, Lucia, Leonora, Elizabeth, Michela, Santuzza and Mimì, in "La Bohème." In the last named role she made her metropolitan debut Sept. 16, at the Broadway Theatre, and won high praise for her work.

Under the Tents.

NOTES FROM THE WILLIAM SKELLS & JAMES H. GRAY'S UNITED SHOWS.—We opened at Savannah, Ga., April 1, and will have completed at the conclusion of the present season one of the longest tours in this country on record, from ocean to ocean and from the Gulf of Mexico to Puget Sound, then back again to the sunny East and South. Many incidents of note have occurred, and the show has gradually increased in size from time to time. We are now Eastward bound, after two months of phenomenal business on the Pacific coast, and a pleasant tour it has station and located at Savannah, Ga., paid the show a pleasant visit, accompanied by his wife, at Bayonne, N. J. On Sept. 25, at Somerville, N. J., Joseph Henderson, one of the blacksmiths connected with the shows, was accidentally run down and killed by a train on the C. R. R. of N. J. tracks while walking from the grounds to the circus campers. The remains were shipped to Elmira, N. Y., where his wife and one child reside. He was a member in good standing of the Order of Red Men. At Bayonne, N. J., Wm. Bartels delivered another consignment of animals to the Fashion Plate Menagerie, including an East Indian deer, a monster black panther, two white fallow deer, several large tropical birds and a dozen monkeys. On Oct. 4 there will arrive in New York direct from Hagenbeck's Ham-

Vaudeville &amp; Minstrel

NOTES FROM WILLIAM JOSE DALY'S MINSTRELS.—We opened Monday, Sept. 16, at Oil City, Pa., and were re-engaged for the following week after our first performance. This show has given universal satisfaction at every park that it has played, and Mr. Daly has secured a number of contracts for Summer parks next season. Last week the weather at this place was so cold that overcoats gave but little protection for a five mile ride on an open car to this park, but again the William Jose Daly Minstrels did the banner week's business of the season, and, contrary to all previous customs, the management charged extra prices for reserved seats, and every seat was sold before the curtain arose each evening. Our Hunky Dory first part, with a chorus of seventeen, and an orchestra of ten musicians, and the original Pan-American Quartet of Buffalo, who sang for our late President at the Temple of Music, Pan-American, were the features of our first part, the Welch Bros., Wm. Delmore and Wm. Jose Daly upholding the ends. The olio was opened by Lew Stevenson, the Arizona mocking bird, whose whistling and bird imitations never fail to make good. This is Mr. Stevenson's first appearance East, and he made an instantaneous success. Delmore and Onedia are placed on the programme as trapeze performers, and their performance is one of the best seen in these parts, and their sensational dash is the talk of the town. The Welch Bros., in their eccentric knockabout song and dance specialty, are making a great success. Their hard and conscientious work and rapid fire comedy talk is received with continuous rounds of laughter, and if there is any truth in the old adage of "laugh and grow fat," the people in this locality have gained in weight during their two weeks' engagement here. The Pan-American Solo Quartet were originally church soloists in Buffalo, their voices being highly cultivated and exceptionally good. They harmonize beautifully and are one of the many features of the olio. Haley and Bond, in their comedy musical act, still continue to make new friends at each performance, without any formal introduction. Before they finish you would imagine that it was a social session of the Laughing Club, but when they finish you would think, from the loud and prolonged applause, that it was their farewell performance. Minnie Gray, who was especially engaged for week of Sept. 23, William Jose Daly will return to New York next week.

THE GREATER AMERICAN VAUDEVILLE CIRCUIS Co. opened in Augusta, Ga., for four nights, commencing Sept. 23. Company consists of: Brumage and Clark, the Great Richards, Little and Pritzkow, Zenta, Buskirk and Rich, La Var Sisters, Billy O'Day, J. D. Smith, manager; Chas. Turner and brass band.

SUGARWATER AND FOX, song illustrators, who are with the Who, What, When Minstrels, are scoring a tremendous success with their songs.

HARRY GARRETT and DONNA B. SOL close with the Bronson Dramatic Co. Oct. 5 and join the Ullie Akerstrom Co. 29, Mr. Garrit for principal comedy and Miss Sol for Ingenues. The team will do single and double specialties.

THE MUSICAL BELLS were at Boston Music Hall last week.

J. BERNARD DYLLIN played the Grand Opera House, Indianapolis, last week, and is at the Temple Theatre, Louisville, this week.

THE BRIGADIER opened their season at Fall River on Sept. 23. The show was a tremendous success from the rise to the fall of the curtain.

BLANCHETTE BENTHAM, of the Pacific Trio, celebrated her birthday Sept. 22, at Denver, and received several beautiful presents.

RUD MELEY and MAUD MULLEIGH have signed with Perrie's Backman Co. for the season, and report big success with their act.

THE WELCH BROS., Jim and Frank, are engaged for another week at Oil City, Pa., with Wm. Jose Daly's Minstrels. They have Toronto and Montreal to follow.

MARCEL GOODWIN and her clever little assistant, Dorothy, after twelve weeks in parks, opened their Winter season at the Avenue Theatre, Detroit. Their act is booked solid until March.

HARRIS and DE LOES are playing this week at McKeesport, Pa., with Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore to follow.

ADA ARNOLDSON, mezzo soprano singer, writes from the Empire, Cleveland, as follows: "My success has been beyond all my expectations. At the Wonderland, Detroit, I made the biggest hit of any singer that has ever appeared in that house. The papers and the management were unanimous in that effect, and on the closing night I received an ovation. I am booked for the following circuits: Keith's, Burke & Chase, Wells, Hopkins & Castle, Orpheum, and Hyde & Behman. I open at Keith's, New York, Nov. 4."

THE WILSON TRIO (Dutch comedy act) report success playing street fairs and other dates.

D'ARLO TROUPE, musical novelty production, arrived from Europe last week, and made their American debut at the Orpheum, Brooklyn, Sept. 30.

THE MARVELOUS HOOFERS write from Paris, under date of Sept. 14: "We opened at the Cirque Medrano last night, and were a tremendous success, going even greater than we had anticipated. The moment we left the stage the agents and managers were at our heels, and judging from the numerous offers we have received it looks as though it will be several years before we return to America. The following American performers are meeting with big success here: Hooper and Davis, Four Emperors of Music, the Great Lafayette, Carrie Delmar, the Rosinos, Caswell and Arnold, and Louis and Hipp. The sad news of our worthy President's death was received with deepest regret by all."

THIS GREAT ALYONA has just closed a twenty weeks' engagement at the Imperial Theatre, Coney Island, and is now a feature of Yost's Big Vaudeville Co.

JAN. H. DECKRA, manager of Primrose & Dockstader's Minstrels, writes: "We have added another record breaking week to our list, as we have played to the full capacity of the Walnut Street Theatre, Cincinnati, every performance last week, putting the orchestra on the stage at each performance, natures and night (getting fifty-two chairs at the pit). The weather has been very warm, and lots of our door sports, but that has not hindered us one bit."

COOPER and BAILEY opened Sept. 9, on the New England circuit, at Lowell, Mass., with Fall River, New Bedford, Lawrence, Lynn, Portland, Me., and the Howard Theatre, Boston, to follow.

ELMO A. STRAN reports success with his specialty in the Dilger Corneli Co. While playing New Kensington, Pa., Mr. Dilger and Mr. Stran were entertained by the Lika Lodge, No. 512, Mr. Dilger being a member of the lodge.

PHILIP WERNER has arrived from the Adirondacks, where he has spent the Summer, and will soon commence to work, producing a new act and play on an elaborate scale that is being written for him by Sigmund B. Alexander.

COLLINS and COLLINS (Dan and William) write: "We do not know who the parties are who are using our firm name. We are the originals of this name, having been together for eight years. We are with the Big Sensation Co. for the season."

EDDIE HORAN opens at Shea's Theatre, Buffalo, with Empire Theatre, Cleveland, to follow.

FRED COHEN has closed eighteen successful weeks on the Southern park circuit, and has signed with A. G. Delamater, in support of Amy Lee, to play comedy and introduce his eccentric singing and talking specialties.

MR. AND MRS. J. H. ADAMS are enjoying a rest at their home in Brooklyn, after playing the Summer resorts. In their sketch, "An Awkward Kid," Mrs. Adams will shortly appear in several new costumes.

MADGE DENNINGER, after visiting the West, will return to New York for the remainder of the season.

BEN LAMB
Was born June 18, 1888, at Gypsum City, Kan. At an early age he showed marked ability as a vocalist, and he was given instruction by competent vocal teachers. His voice is nominally baritone, but is of remarkable range, power and sweetness. He recently sang in Convention Hall, Kansas City, and his voice was clearly heard in every part of the immense auditorium. His father, Chas. W. Lamb, has decided to put him on the vaudeville and concert stage, and he will shortly appear in the East.

been. Recently at Great Falls, Mont., the labor unions (on Labor Day) joined the circus in making it a grand holiday, the show giving a morning and evening performance only, the unions furnishing the afternoon programme, assisted by the several circus bands, under the able leadership of Prof. Carl Neud. It was a great success. Spokane, Wash.; Butte, Anaconda, Helena, Bozeman and Billings, Mont., gave us immense houses. At Crow Agency, Mont., between performances, many visited the memorable Custer battlefield, a mile distant. No pen picture can adequately describe the formation of the field upon which the fighting took place, but the story is told, though no living witness has ever told it. A monument to Custer, two hundred and sixty (authentic) marble slabs, each placed exactly where a body was found, tell a pathetic story. Sad as looked the scene marking a national sorrow in the year of our Philadelphia Centennial, but two days more elapsed when news reached us of the assassination of our beloved President, and today, as I pen this letter, all our bands in one are leading the funeral procession of five thousand people to the memorial services at the Opera House. Jo Berris' new sixty-five horse act is about to be presented. It will be the largest act of its kind (65) ever undertaken. Rose Maretta, who recently suffered from the Pullman coach fire, has about recovered and is again at work. The Nimrods and disciples of Isaac Walton, with the show, have had a huge time lately. J. C. Clark holds the medal among the fishermen, having taken with rod and reel, with grasshopper bait, a brook trout weighing three pounds and eleven ounces, while G. H. Hollis is first among the hunters. He recently, after a half day's hunt, came in with one dead teal duck, a crippled snipe and a blind coyote. We often wonder if all tented aggregations are as fortunate as are the people of Sells & Gray's Shows, in having with them a wealthy physician. We have, and like the "good Samaritan," he serves all alike, without money or price. I refer to generous William Eddy, of the Eddy family of famous acrobats, who has administered all season to the sick and injured with our show and will not accept remuneration. At Lead City, S. D., ten miles up the steep mountain side (Sept. 16) above Deadwood, Sells & Gray's were the first to ever appear at that city of wondrous thrift and wealth with a big show. And to add to the novelty, it didn't rain, it snowed. What was still more surprising, the tents, in spite of the falling snow, were literally packed at both performances. The Deadwood Pioneer Times, in commenting upon it the next morning, remarked that it was understood that "the show was to play a return date at Lead on Christmas Day." I cannot call to mind, nor do I think can any Clippis reader, of any circus heretofore having experienced the novelty of giving two complete performances to packed tents actually up in the clouds and during a snow storm.

WALTER L. MAIN NOTES.—The success of the Fashion Plate Shows continues unabated, and, despite the cool evenings, the business has been phenomenal at every stand. The enlarging of the show still goes on, and it was found necessary to add another long flat car at Jersey City, Leontine, the three-legged boy, and Madame Fatima, the mind reader, have been added to the annex features, while Madame Yucca, the champion strong woman, is now prominent on the circus programme. Several other novelties will also be added at Slatington Monday. The Four Silivins are now presenting their new pedestal acrobatic act in full evening dress and meeting with success. Messrs. Gill Robinson and Jack Holmes were interested spectators at Jersey City. On Sept. 21 Mr. Main purchased from Wm. J. Doris the entire annex outfit and also his privilege rights for the concert. Mr. Doris is no longer connected with the aggregation, and James W. Beattie has been secured to manage both the concert and the annex for the rest of the season. Charles Bernard, formerly treasurer of the Walter Main Shows, but now secretary to the bill posting assoburg Anima' Emporium, two young dromedaries and two India elephants. The latter two animals have been used in the far East jungles by the natives to capture and impale the animals upon a wooden post. These two intelligent beasts will be assigned prominent parts in the realistic "Animal Hunt" which will hereafter form an important number in the hippodrome programme.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Manchester.—Opera House (E. W. Harrington, manager).—"Our New Minister." Sept. 23, had a good house and gave entire satisfaction. On 24 "The Christian" was seen by a packed house, S. R. O. being displayed early in the day. Joseph Wheelock and an excellent company, 27, in a new version of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Coming: Oct. 2, Gorton's Minstrels; 4, Keller; 7, Quo Vadis; 8, James O'Neill, in "Monte Cristo"; 9, Daniel Sully.

PARK THEATRE (John Stiles, manager).—"A Wise Guy" was seen Sept. 23-25, by good houses. An excellent burlesque on "David Garrick," by Edmund Hayes, John McVeigh and company, was the main feature of the slap bang sort of drama play. "The Deemster" followed 26-28, and also played to good houses. Coming: Sept. 30-Oct. 2, "Kidnapped in New York"; 3-5, "A Royal Prisoner"; 7-9, Blue Blood Burlesques; 10-12, Sam T. Jack's Burlesques; 14-16, "Hot-test Coon in Dixie."

PALACE THEATRE (Billy Nelson, manager).—"The opening of this house has been definitely fixed for Oct. 7."

F. B. GARNETT (Ben McPherson, manager).—"Nellie Buckley and Jennie Hill gave their new sketch, "Carrying Coal to Newcastle Circuit," week of 23. Other performers included: Jeremiah Patrick Grady, James F. Parker, Nyland and Beauregard.

NOTES.—Louis DuCroc, of Manning and DuCroc, one leg acrobats, and who has for some time past been staying at his home here on account of ill health, is improving greatly, and expects to rejoin his partner soon. . . . The "A Wise Guy" company played baseball, Sept. 25, with a nine composed of the stage employees of the Park Theatre, and beat them to the tune of 25 to 17. A general good time followed.

FROM OTHER POINTS.

"A Million of Money" Received Its First Production in America at the Castle Square, Boston, Sept. 30—Business is Uniformly Excellent.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—Mary Manning's Boston debut, in "Janice Meredith," at the Colonial, resulted in a great reception. "Sag Harbor" and "The Million of Money" were also well received. The fifth week of the King's opened her second week at the Hollis, to capacity. Marguerita Silva's second week, in "Princess Chloé," at the Tremont, and Peter F. Dalley, in the last week of "Champagne," at the Boston, drew good houses. Capacity of house was again tested at the Columbia, when "Evangeline" began its third week. "The Penitent" entered upon its last week at the Park to satisfactory patronage. S. R. O. at Castle Square, when "A Million of Money" was produced for the first time in America. It was elaborately staged and cleverly acted. Rose Coghlin, in "Peg Woffington," filled the Grand Opera. "Side Track," at Morrison's Grand, "King of the Opium Ring," at Bowdoin Square, opened big. The spectacular production again headed a capital bill at Keith's, to large patronage. Big house at Music Hall was offered an agreeable surprise in a new comedy, "The Million of Money." Palace, Howard and Lyceum gave attractive bills, to great business. Museums were not forgotten by the amusement seekers. Indian Summer weather prevailed.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 1.—At the Century Chaumery Theatre, in "Garret O'Meara," opened a good business. Herbert Keely and Edie Shannon, at the Olympic, after "Her Lord and Master." The opening attendance was of fair size. "The Little Minister," at the Grand, at popular prices, is a meritorious production. Leo Ditchek and company, "The Stock of the Broadway Burlesquers," opened Sept. 29 at the Imperial, for a three weeks' engagement. "Fra Diavolo," this week, is fairly well put on. The attendance was large. At the Columbia the new vaudeville bill is headed by Frances Redding and company, James Thornton, Tom Lukens, and Waterbury and Tenny. The Banda Rossa, at the Odeon, closed 30, after quite a profitable engagement.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Jefferson De Angelis, in "A Royal Rogue," opened at the Grand Sunday night with a packed house. Cleveland's new minstrel house drew good audiences Sunday and last night, and light audience at yesterday's matinee. "Ben Hur," at Winter's, continued to capacity business. "Way Down East," at the Vicker's, and "Mrs. Dane's Defence," at Powers', began their last week with large audiences. "King Dodo" drew good audience last night. "Old Jed Prouty" pleased large audiences Sunday and last night at the Great Northern. "The Dearborn Stock" to packed houses. Alhambra, Hopkins, Academy, Bijou and Criterion began with well filled houses. People's and American Theatres did not prosper as well. New bills at Kohl and Castle houses last night drew crowds. Burlesque houses began with bounding business.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 1.—"The English Rose," at the Temple Theatre yesterday, drew two big audiences. At the Sunday opening of the Avenue Theatre, "Sis Hopkins," by Rose Melville, to packed houses. The Bowery Burlesquers opened Sunday at the Buckingham to crowded houses at both performances.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1.—"Lovers Lane"

met instant favor at the Opera House, delighting large audiences. "The Marriage Game" at the Broad, and "Florodora" at the Chestnut continued in favor, as did "The Christian" at the Walnut. Henrietta Crossman returned to the Auditorium, drawing a splendid house to "Mistress Nell." "The Pride of Jennico" at the Park, "The Volunteer Organist" at the National, "White Slave" at the People's proved good drawing cards. Commendable productions at stock houses did not fail to win appreciation. At Keith's regulars. Hyde's comedians at the Grand had all that could be desired. Entertaining bills at burlesque houses drew excellent audiences. "The Elements and Music" had no cause to complain.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Francis Wilson, in "The Strangers," filled the National last night. Anna Held, in "The Little Duchess," packed the Columbia last night. Otis Harlan and Chas. E. Mason Comedy Stock presented a burlesque on "Arizona" and the Schley Inquiry. Success is continued. The Broadway Burlesquers drew the usual large opening attendance to the Lyceum.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 1.—Honors for opening attendance fell to the Alhambra with "Whirl-I-Gig." Extra chairs were out for matinee, and S. R. O. was reached early. Many were turned away in the evening. The Thambousser Co. put C. H. Meltzer's version of "Manon Lescaut" on Monday night, for the first time to complete success. At the Bijou "The Secret Dispatch" had the usual jam twice Sunday. At the Past "Kisses Blunt" drew capacity and scored well. Angela Virag, the new soubrette, proved a great favorite. The Strand met with High Rollers also opened to S. R. O. both matinee and night.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 1.—The Andrews Stock Opera Co. gave "Cavalleria" and "Mikado" at the Century tonight to good attendance. At the Grand, yesterday matinee, "Superior" opened to a packed house, and at night turned hundreds away. Two packed houses saw and enjoyed a fine bill at the Orpheum. The Woodward Stock Co. presented "The Magistrate" to the usual big Sunday gathering at the Grand. "The Case of Belshazzar" and "The Million of Money" were the main attractions. At the Bijou "The Secret Dispatch" had the usual jam twice Sunday. At the Past "Kisses Blunt" drew capacity and scored well. Angela Virag, the new soubrette, proved a great favorite. The Strand met with High Rollers also opened to S. R. O. both matinee and night.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—"Barbara Frietche," with Frances Gaunt in the title role, filled the Walnut Street at both performances. "The Case of Belshazzar" and "The Million of Money" were the main attractions. At the Bijou "The Secret Dispatch" had the usual jam twice Sunday. At the Past "Kisses Blunt" drew capacity and scored well. Angela Virag, the new soubrette, proved a great favorite. The Strand met with High Rollers also opened to S. R. O. both matinee and night.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

WASHINGTON.—The attractions presented last week were of fair quality, but did not appeal strongly to the playgoers, as neither of our theatres held over full houses after the opening night. Leo Ditchek and company, "The Stock of the Broadway Burlesquers," drew the usual melodramatic patrons to the Academy of Music, and a very evenly balanced bill of polite vaudeville had its usual cordial reception at Chas. Theatre. The new Bijou Stock Co. opened its permanent season at the Bijou Theatre, and met with large patronage, and Harry Morris' Twentieth Century Maids had good business at the Lyceum. Cabin John Bridge Park, the only suburban resort now open, had excellent business at its Palm Garden Theatre, where the Amateur motion pictures were continuing on exhibition. This week the attractions announced promise better business, come opera, farce and musical comedy, melodrama, vaudeville and variety each having an inning, and therefore catering to nearly all tastes. The current, past and coming bills are as follow:

NATIONAL THEATRE (W. H. Ripley, manager).—This week the Francis Wilson Co. in "The Strangers." Last week, "The Last Appeal," "Primrose and Stockholder's Minstrels" Oct. 7-12.

COLUMBIA THEATRE (Lockett & Dwyer, managers).—This week Anna Held and Charles A. Bigelow, in "The Little Duchess." Last week, "Liberty Bells." Frank Daniels, in "Miss Simplicio," Oct. 7-12.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC (Whitman Osgood, manager).—This week, "A Ragged Hero," "The Volunteer Organist" Oct. 7-12.

CHAS. THEATRE (H. Minniford De Witt, manager).—This week Otis Harlan and Chas. E. Mason Comedy Stock Co. in "A Stranger in New York." Last week a prime, polite vaudeville bill. The Chas. Comedy Stock, in "A Brass Monkey," Oct. 7-12.

LYCEUM THEATRE (Leo Ditchek, manager).—This week, "The Broadway Burlesquers." Last week, Harry Morris' Twentieth Century Maids. The Merry Maidens Burlesquers Oct. 7-12.

BIJOU THEATRE (Morris S. Schlesinger, manager).—This week, "The Broadway Burlesquers." Last week, "The Broadway Burlesquers." Last week, Harry Morris' Twentieth Century Maids. The Merry Maidens Burlesquers Oct. 7-12.

WALTER L. MAIN'S CIRQUE has its first Washington appearance Oct. 7, 8.

CONNECTICUT.

Hartford.—Parson's (H. C. Parson, manager)—Henrietta Crossman, Sept. 24, in "Mistress Nell," delighted a large house. Kellar, 25, came to good business. Williams and Walker, 26, gave a good show, to fair patronage. "Chaperones," 30, Oct. 1, Julia Marlowe 2, 3, John Mason 4, 5.

New Hartford (Jennings & Graves, managers).—"A Homespun Heart," Sept. 23; "The Wrong Mr. Wright," 24, were well patronized. "The Rays," John and Emma, 26-28, in "A Hot Old Time," played to S. R. O. for six performances. Bookings: Joseph Wheeler 30, "A Runaway Match" Oct. 1, 2, "Black Hawk" 3, "Kidnaped in New York" 4, 5, "Hotest Non in Dixie" 6, "Black Creek" 8, "Miss O'Shaunessy" 9, 10, "Brick Burglary" 11, 12.

"The Chaperons," a musical comedy, by Frederic Rankin and Isidore Witmark, received its first production at Parson's Theatre, Hartford, Ct., on Sept. 30, by Frank L. Terley's comedians.

"Elen Holden," E. E. Rose's dramatization of Irving Hatcher's novel of that name, was first given at the Park City Theatre, Bridgeport, Ct., on Sept. 30.

Chas. W. Smith, manager and agent, is at his home in Palmyra, O., where he has just recovered from an illness which deterred him from relieving Gus Hill's forces.

Trudy Shattuck is attracting considerable attention this season with her new song of Southern life, entitled "Lit'l Gal," and Witt's sacred solo, "The Everlasting Light."

A novelty is offered for current week in an original American-Japanese musical comedy, entitled "Mayo San." Special pains have been taken to make this offering a most enjoyable and successful one. The vaudeville offering is of the usual strength, and includes: Keno, Welch and Melrose, Joseph house and gave perfect satisfaction. Coming: Cook Church Co. 30 and week, "Caught in the Web" Oct. 7, Y. M. C. A. S. "The Power Behind the Throne" 9, 10, "Human Hearts" 11, 12.

RICH'S THEATRE (Calder & Rhodes, managers).—Brigadiers Burlesquers played to fairly good business Sept. 23-25. The Royal bury, advance agent; Wm. Stone, stage manager; Henry Hof, master machinist; G. W. Price, master properties; Willis Baker, John T. Nicholson, C. G. Osbourn, G. E. Martin, Wm. G. Warren, Robt. Dudley, John Fenton, Wm. Stone, Emily Dodd, Helen Warren, Jessie Dodd, Libbie Moore Fenton. Our season opened Sept. 21 at Chester, Pa.

KEITH'S (George E. Bogle, resident manager).—The return of the living art studies is fully duplicating their former success, being, if anything, more beautiful than ever. They are continued this week in conjunction with a capital vaudeville bill which includes in the cast, Maud and Mrs. Sidons.

Drew, in "A Model Young Man," the Eight English Boys, their second week, Quaker City Quartette, Harding and Ah Sio, Carson and Willard, Tom Nawn and company, in "Par and the Geni," Mlle. Olive, Farrell and Richardson, the Vedmars, Adelina Rotundo, the Paleys, and the biograph. Business could hardly be better than it has been during the past few weeks.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (N. Hashim, manager).—Hyde's Comedians furnish the current bill at this house, among their numbers being: Grace Emmet, and company, Golden, Dolan and Leharz, Trovillo, the Colby Family, Hayes and Healy, Edna Burchell, Tom Moore, O'Rourke and Burnette, Dooley and Kent, and James and Fields. The vaudeville bill last week came in for full appreciation from large sized audiences.

ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE (Frank Dumont, manager).—The bill at this house is somewhat freshened this week by the production of the new burlesque, entitled "The Philadelphia Fire Ladder." This is in honor of the firemen's convention, and a realistic first scene is introduced. "Loop-the-loop" and "Cream-a-tore at Willow Grove" are continued in favor, while new songs and gags are introduced in the first part, and a change of specialties. Business so far this season has been better than for the past.

LYCEUM THEATRE (John G. Jernison, manager).—The Rents-Santley Burlesque Co. holds the boards at this house this week, presenting a bill of vaudeville and the two burlesques, "When Your Wife's Away" and "Under Two Jails." An interesting and properly varied bill was presented by the Rice & Barton Gaiety Company last week, and the patrons were there in large numbers to enjoy the good things provided. The Broadway Burlesques are coming next week.

THEATRE (Floyd Lamm, manager).—The Dainty Duchess Burlesque Co. is the excellent offering at this house this week. Prominent in the company are: Milton and Maude Wood, Bryce and Inman, the Exposition Four, Four Huggins, Allan Wightman, and the American Trio, including Nick, Clay Boy and her assistants. Disported themselves last week to the evident satisfaction of the patrons, who were there in large numbers.

KENSINGTON THEATRE (John Hart, manager).—May Howard comes, bringing met with success down town last week, to this house for the present week, with the entire approval of the patrons. There was excellent business last week for Howard & Emerson's Own Co., and their efforts to entertain met with the hearty approval. The Rents-Santley Co. is the announcement for the coming week.

NINTH AND ARCH THEATRE (C. A. Fradenburgh, manager).—In the curio hall this week are: Chas. B. Blodgett, champion trick pool player; "He," a nondescript; Lola Cotton, mental marvel; Delkano, king of hand-cuffs; Areno, flexible wonder; the Holbrooks, musical specialties, and Stone Brothers, bag juggling. In the theatre the continuous vaudeville program includes: Nick, Clay Boy and Wilbur Field; Mlle. Beth, Al Wayne and Irene Lamar, Starr and Wood, Harry Burgoine, Williamson and Gilbert, and Mitchell and Marron.

NOTES.—Viola Allen is to follow Richard Mansfield at the new Garrick Theatre on Oct. 21, being the second attraction to play the house. Frank Dumont has in preparation a nautical burlesque for the use of the minstrels at the Eleventh Street Opera House, the title being "Shamrock and Columba." It is announced that the stock company at Forepaugh's Theatre will in the near future appear in a production of "Hamlet." It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Cheney will attend the first performance of "As You Like It" at the Auditorium on Friday evening.

Announcement is made of the two series of concerts to be given here during the coming season by the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Each series consists of five concerts, the first occurring on the evenings of Monday, Nov. 4; Monday, Dec. 9; Monday, Jan. 13; Friday, Feb. 21, and Monday, March 17. The second series on Wednesday evenings of Nov. 6, Dec. 11, Jan. 15, Feb. 19 and March 19.

Pittsburg.—There was never a more hopeful outlook for a prosperous theatrical season than now. The attendance thus far has been such as to warrant the belief that the present season will fully equal in profit that of 1900-1901, which was a record breaker.

ALVIN THEATRE (Nixon & Zimmerman, managers).—Primrose & Dockstader's Minstrels is the current attraction. "Are You a Mason?" closed a good week Sept. 28. GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Harry Davis, manager).—"A Midnight Bell" is ringing out loud and clear. "The Little Minister" closed 28 a big week.

DIJESSE THEATRE (Harry W. Williams, manager).—Williams and Tucker, Alice Raymond, Alexandra Dagmar, Conway and Leland, and Jess Dandy are Manager Williams' top liners for the current week. Last week's business was very large.

EMPIRE THEATRE (E. J. McCullough, manager).—This beautiful house is now firmly established as one of the most popular theatres, and Manager McCullough's efforts are meeting the reward they so richly merit. "Through the Breakers" took the stage 30, for a week's run. "Under Two Flags" proved a big winner up to 28.

HARRY WILLIAMS' ACADEMY OF MUSIC (Harry Williams, manager).—Bobby Manchester's Cracker Jacks, 30 and week. Weber's Dainty Duchess Co. closed a big engagement 28.

RIJOU THEATRE (Bob Gilpin, manager).—"The Man Who Dared" is here this week. "The Evil Eye" closed 28.

PITTSBURGH EXPOSITION (T. J. Fitzpatrick, manager).—This season has seen the biggest crowds pouring through the gates. Manager Fitzpatrick's great show that have ever been known at any exhibition shown here. Walter Damrosch and his big orchestra are the trump cards just now.

Harrisburg.—Patronage was equally distributed the past week, but not in large quantities. The slump in business was a disappointment.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (N. Appell, manager).—The McLean-Tyler Co. presented "King John" Sept. 25, to small audience. It was an elaborate production. "Lost in Egypt" did poorly 24, and Mrs. Le Moyne, in "The First Duchess of Marlborough," 25, drew a fair sized audience, doing the largest business of the week, and with her entire company secured big hits. The Merry Maidens drew fair audiences 26, and James R. Walte's first appearance as a star in his own play, 27, was not what it deserved to be. "Two Little Waifs" did fairly well 28. Due: "Devil's Auction" 30, Willis Brothers Oct. 1, 2, Dainty Parer Burlesquers 3, "Naughty Anthony" 5.

NOTES.—James R. Walte was warmly welcomed by his friends on his appearance here Sept. 27. "The Devil's Doin's" is making a hit in the Cumberland Valley, and did well at Carlisle, Pa., 27. The Walter L. Main Show will close its Northern season in this vicinity. The season at Rosedale Theatre, Chambersburg, Pa., will open Oct. 1, with "Pudd'nhead Wilson." A. W. Cross, representing Shipman Brothers, who own this attraction, was here 24, and arranged for the appearance of his company here in March. Ernest Hoffman, after a successful season at Atlantic City, began his annual tour for the Willis Brothers Co. here 24. Charles Carpenter, general agent for the Grand Opera House, in this city, will celebrate his twelfth anniversary as one of the principal attaches of the local playhouse Oct. 3.

Seranton.—At the Lyceum (A. J. Duffy, manager) "Secret Warren" Sept. 28. "When We Were Twenty-one" comes Oct. 3. Mod. Hoyt's "A Day and a Night," Sept. 28, was received by a good house.

ACADEMY (A. C. Dwyer, manager).—Leyburn's Bon Ton Co. week 30. The King Dramatic Co. week 23, to good business. STAR (Alf. G. Herrington, manager).—The Rents-Santley Burlesquers, week Sept. 23, to good business.

NOTES.—Jno. L. Kerr, general manager of the Reis circuit, of Syracuse, was a visitor here 28. Harry Storm, of the Creston Clarke Co., visited friends here during the past week.

Altoona.—At the Eleventh Avenue Opera House (L. C. Misher, manager) R. D. McLean and Odette Tyler were received by a large and well pleased audience Sept. 21. "Barbara Frietche" 24, the Merry Maidens 25, and "Two Little Waifs" 27, all did big business. Sarah Cowell Le Moyne is due 28. "The Road to Ruin" Oct. 1. "Petticoats and Bayonets" 2. "Finian's Ball" 3. "Devil's Auction" 4. "Joshua Sprucey" 5. Wood, magician, 7, 8. "Through the Breakers" 9. "St. Stebbins" 10. "The Decemster" 11. "Port Reno" 12.

ERIE.—At the Park Opera House (John L. Gilson, manager) the Klay & Erlanger Opera Co. in "Foxy Quiller," Sept. 23, sang to a full house and gave the best of satisfaction to all. "The Man from Mexico," 24, was favored with fair business. Martin's evening, drew large business. Bill Thompson, in "The Old Homestead," 28. "The Sign of the Cross" Oct. 1.

OHIO.

Cincinnati.—Not since the old days when the Buckeye metropolis was given the title "The Paris of America," and the district "The Canal became internationally famous as 'The Rhine,' have there been more concert halls than are now open. The Buckeye Theatre, managed by James Douglass, once Hubert Heuck's assistant and later at the Coliseum; the Casino and the Palms are all on the street. The Grand Concert Hall is on Longworth, and the Atlantic Garden, one of the oldest of down town resorts, has just gone into vaudeville. There are half a dozen other rag time places. No admission is charged at any of them, and there is no appreciable drainage upon the theatrical patronage of the cheaper houses on account of them.

PIKE OPERA HOUSE (D. H. Hunt, manager).—"The Case of Rebellious Susan" will be given its first local presentation Sept. 29. Last week "The Slave King" was revived by the Pike Stock Company, to splendid business. Byron Douglas assumed the role made famous by Wilson Barrett, while Lizzie Hudson Collier, as the wife, was given flattering applause. "The Adventure of Lady Ursula" Oct. 6. Henrietta Crossman, 27.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE (M. C. Anderson, manager).—Frances Gault will assume the role created by Julia Marlowe, in "Barbara Frietche," Sept. 29. Last week Primrose & Dockstader's Minstrels, under the management of James H. Beck, played to great business. Once more Porphoros has the burnt cork fever. "Old Jed Protty" Oct. 6.

HEUCK'S OPERA HOUSE (Hubert Heuck, manager).—"The Scotchman's Boy" is coming Sept. 29. It is a sensational melodrama now enthusiastically received last week. Ida Glenn, Howard Truesdale and Rowland Edwards were given warm applause. "The Man Who Dared" Oct. 6.

COLUMBIA THEATRE (M. C. Anderson, manager).—The bill booked Sept. 29 includes: Charles Bradshaw and company, in the one act play, "Fix in a Fix"; Janet Melville and Evie Stetson, Murphy and Nichols, in "The Bifurcated Girl"; William and Simmons, Valdis Sisters, James H. Cullen, Derenda and Breen and John Gelger. The vaudeville last week was pleasing to the big crowds, and the best feature was Tchow's Trained Cats.

LYCEUM THEATRE (Heuck, Fennessy & Stair, managers).—William Boneill and Rosie Stahl are coming Sept. 29, in "An American Gentleman." Elmer Walters' play, "A Thoroughbred Tramp" did a big business last week. John Swartwood assumed the role of T. Rush Thompson, the hobo, while Theresa Belmont and Eunice Veronnes made good impressions. "Old Arkansas" Oct. 6.

PROVINE'S THEATRE (Hubert Heuck, manager).—The Topsy Turvy Burlesquers are coming Sept. 29. Last week Watson's Oriental Burlesquers played to splendid business. Belle Gordon, the bag puncher; Kitty Clements, the Bowers Girl, and the Lassie and the Brothers were features of the olio, while Jennie Dupree was one of the lights in the closing burlesque, "Are You a Buffalo?" Harry Morris' Twentieth Century Maids Oct. 6.

HECK'S WONDER WORLD (W. S. Heck, manager).—The Tyrolean Warblers, who have been at the German Village at the Fall Festival for two weeks, will be the card in curio hall Sept. 30, while Jack Murch, the magician; Stebelton and Cheney, Spedden and Henson, and Waring and Waring will present the vaudeville. Business good.

GOSSIP OF THE LOBBY.—Thomas H. Mackay has resigned the business management of the Park to take out "Tales Out of School," now rehearsing in New York, under Max Freeman. He has been succeeded by A. C. Robinson, of St. Louis. W. T. Sheehan has gone to New York to resume his old duties as stage manager for Joseph Murphy, a position he has filled with credit for fourteen consecutive seasons.

James M. C. Anderson has returned from Chicago, where he attended a meeting of the booking board of the Western Vaudeville Combine. James E. Fennessy is in the East. Mrs. Alf. Whelan, wife of the comedian, who was stranded here, was sent east relaying by the Primrose & Dockstader Minstrels. Reka Goldberg, a Cincinnati girl, who has won recent honors on the concert stage, is visiting her old home. The Whitney Brothers spent some days here with old friends.

Cleveland.—Altogether so far this season the attendance is very good. It can be seen, however, that the regular theatregoers have not yet gotten into the swing of the thing, but indications promise well.

OPERA HOUSE (A. F. Hartz, manager).—Jefferson De Angellis, in "A Royal Rogue," showed his versatility as a comedian of first water. Attendance, week of Sept. 23, was very good. W. H. Crane, as David Harum, showed week 30, followed by "Are You a Mason?" which latter company is receiving extraordinary advance advertising.

LYCEUM THEATRE (J. K. Cookson, manager).—The Vandyke drew well week of 23. Showing that the play still has attractive qualities. "Put Me Off at Buffalo" is the bill week of 30, followed by "The Telephone Girl."

CLEVELAND THEATRE (J. K. Cookson, manager).—"At Cripple Creek" proved a thrill. The melodrama of Western life, just what the people of this house want, and the attendance week 23 was no exception to the general rule, which means very good business. "The Human Spider" billed week 30, and "The Gambler's Daughter" Oct. 7.

GAMBLER'S DAUGHTER (F. M. Drew & W. T. Campbell, managers).—Watson's American Burlesquers, week 23, gave a very clever and sparkling performance. "The opening burlesque, "A Fiddler's Daughter," which leaped A. B. Watson and his Jewish character acting, employs the whole company and is sprightly and entertaining, and is highly staged. The olio specialties include the following: Bill; Washburn and Grant, Leslie and Curdy, Crimmins and Gore, in a sketch called "Like Mother Used to Make"; Chris. Green and the Millar Bros. The concluding burlesque, called "Zed's Corners," like the opening one, was very good and enjoyable. The World Beat-ers will be seen the first time in Cleveland week 30. The Cracker Jacks follow.

EMPIRE THEATRE (L. M. Kirick, manager).—An exceedingly good bill was presented week of 23, and included: Montgomery and Stone, Ada Arnoldson, and the Three Polos. For week of 30 Mlle. Taglione, dancer, is the feature. Others are: York and Adams, Bertie Fowler, the World's Trio, and Deono Bros.

Toledo.—At the Valentine Theatre (Otto F. Kilves, manager) Keely-Shannon Co. did well 23, 24. "Foxy Grandpa" rather light 25, 26. Coming: "The Burgomaster" 30, "Zed's Corners" 31, "Are You a Mason?" 32.

LYCEUM THEATRE (Frank Burt, manager).—"Shore Acres" had nice business week of Sept. 22. Ward and Vokes opened 29 for one week.

EMPIRE THEATRE (I. H. Garson, manager).—The Empire Co. gave a great production of "Mme. Sans Gene" last week. For 29 and week "The Senator" will be the attraction.

BURT'S THEATRE (Frank Burt, manager).—"The Burgomaster" with "For Liberty and Love" and "Innocent Stacey" was rather light. The openings for 29 and week are: "Nobody's Claim" 29-Oct. 1, "The Denver Express" 2-4.

NEW MARKET THEATRE (J. A. Wise, manager).—Business is fair with vaudeville and farce.

Youngstown.—At the Opera House (Eugene Rook, manager) Wm. H. Crane came, on account of injury, Sept. 20. "At the Old Cross Roads," 21 (two performances), had good business. "Side Tracked," 22. "Come Sykes and S. R. O. 24. In "Foxy Quiller," Smith O'Brien, in "The Game Keeper," had good business 25. Booked: "The Heart of Chicago" 28, "Are You a Mason?" Oct. 1, "The Man from Mexico" 3, Joseph Jefferson, J. Harrison J. Wolfe 5. (DORA PARK CARSON THEATRE, E. Stanley, manager).—Week of Sept. 23: Garnella-Raymond Muihoo Comedy Co. is entertaining good crowds. This week will close the popular resort, and Manager Stanley announces that the season has proved a great success.

Dayton.—At the Victoria Theatre (C. G. Miller, manager) the Keely-Shannon Co. presented "Her Lord and Master" Sept. 23, and had fair business. "The Burgomaster" 24, "Foxy Quiller" 25, and Jerome Sykes, in "Foxy Quiller," played to a well filled house. 28. Due: Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar, Oct. 2, in "Foxy Grandpa"; Mrs. Le Moyne, in "The First Duchess of Marlborough," 3, and Joseph Jefferson, matinee and night, 5, in "Winkle" and "The Cricket on the Hearth."

PARK THEATRE (Harry E. Felcht, manager).—"An American Tramp" succeeded in drawing well Sept. 23-25. "At the Old Cross Roads" attracted good crowds 26-28. "The Land of Cotton" with Mlle. Harlow comes 30-Oct. 2. "In a Woman's Power" 3-5. SOLDIERS' HOME THEATRE.—A splendid audience witnessed "Uncle Josh Sprucey" 27. "At the Old Cross Roads" comes 30.

Columbus.—At the Great Southern Theatre (Lee M. Hoda, manager) Jerome Sykes, in "Foxy Quiller," played to a packed house 29. Booked: "Foxy Grandpa" Sept. 30 Oct. 1.

HIGH STREET THEATRE (A. G. Owens, manager).—"At the Old Cross Roads" played to a large audience Sept. 23-25. Due: 30-Oct. 2, "In a Woman's Power."

OREGON.

Portland.—At the Marquam Grand (Calvin Helbig, manager) "A Runaway Girl" opened Sept. 23, to a crowded house. Arthur Dunn and the entire company made good. The James Nell Co. did big business week of 16, with "The Case of Rebellious Susan," "The Royal Box," "Rosemary" and "An Ideal Husband." Thomas Q. Stebbins comes Oct. 3-5, in "A Modern Crusade," followed 7-9, by "Sporting Life," and 10-12 by Stuart Robinson.

CORDBAY'S THEATRE (John F. Cordray, manager).—"A Draggage Check" opened Sept. 22, to capacity. "Daughter of the Diamond King" was productive of business week of 15. Coming: "A Female Drummer" week of 29, Tivoli Opera Co. week of Oct. 6.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE (Clarence H. Jones, manager).—"The Queen of Hayti" did good business Sept. 15-22. The theatre is now dark.

FREDERICKSBURG MUSIC HALL (Brown & Grant, managers).—Week of 22: Wiggins and Raymond, Arnold, Nellie Bruce, Ella Dhu, Hattie Ward, the Two La Monts. FRITZ'S CONCERT HALL (E. J. Penning, manager).—Week of 22: Ed. Scott, Lottie Hoch, Oscar Hoch, John Walker, Dalton and Lewis, Nina Macbring, Carberry and Stanton, Helen Bushnell.

PORTLAND CARNIVAL, 1901, (E. W. Rowe, superintendent), opened successfully 20, in the Exposition Building and Multnomah Athletic Club Field. The attendance has been good in spite of several days of rain, more nearly continuous than usual. Good weather is hoped for, with reason, for the remainder of the carnival. Among the attractions are: All Zedi, Gossamer-Hirschhorn, Alpine yodlers; the Lundgrens, the Christians, Dick Thomas, and Hermann. Music is furnished by De Caprio's Military Band, Sig. A. De Caprio, director, and Everest's Third Regiment Band, J. H. Everest, director.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis.—Warm weather played a return engagement last week, much to every one's surprise, for the cool wave preceding it had been supposed to be an introduction to Winter itself. Of necessity it had interfered to some extent with the theatrical business, but most of the local houses report a good week, notwithstanding.

OLYMPIC.—Manager Short offered an attraction that drew good patronage, despite adverse criticisms by the local press. The play was "Under Two Flags," with Blanche Bates as Cigarette. The criticisms, however, were of the plot and minor characters, and not of Miss Bates, who did extremely well. The scenic effects also were, with a few exceptions, above reproach, and with the general rapid action of the plot, and the carelessness of the dramatist and weakness of the support. This week the Keely-Shannon Co. is here.

CENTURY.—Tim Murphy, in "A Capital Comedy," held the boards at Manager Short's Olive Street house. John Griffith and his company were quite flattering by its size. Mr. Murphy has become quite a favorite here with those who admired the quiet style of acting made famous by his predecessor, Sol Smith Russell. The support got enough encores to be good, albeit a few slips of the tongue and lapses of memory made plain that the season was just opening. Miss Sherrod was well received and was the only one in the company appearing in her own abilities. This week Chauncey Olcott is here.

COLUMBIA.—Managers Middleton & Tate offered a bill of average worth last week that received average patronage. Perhaps the greatest success of the week was "The King's Carnival" at the NEW YORK, "The Ladies' Paradise" at the METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE, the stock company at the AMERICAN, "Hoity Toity" at WEBER & FIELDS, the stock company at the MURRAY HILL, and "Up York State" at the FOURTEENTH STREET. The one last named having closed upon that date. At Manager Proctor's four houses, the FIFTH AVENUE, the TWENTY-THIRD STREET, the FIFTY-EIGHTH STREET and the ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH STREET, plays by his stock companies, with added vaudeville features, continued to meet with public favor. The one week stands closing Sept. 28 were: "Treasure Island" at the THIRD AVENUE, "The Brixton Burglary" at the GRAND OPERA HOUSE, "San Toy" at the HARLEM OPERA HOUSE, and "Lost River" at the METROPOLIS. Variety entertainment was furnished at TONY PASTOR'S, KEITH'S UNION SQUARE, the LONDON, the DEWEY, HURTIQ & SEAMON'S, the OLYMPIC, the ORPHEUM, the ATLANTIC GARDEN, and MINER'S BOWERY and EIGHTH AVENUE. At the GERMANIA THEATRE "The Land of the Free" continued to be presented in German. The news received here last week of the death of the veteran player, James B. Roberts, was the cause of genuine sorrow to those who had enjoyed the privilege of acquaintance with him. Although he had long ago retired from the stage he was known even to many of the younger members of the profession through his occasional visits to the home of the local lodge of the Actors' Order of Friendship, and his mental and physical activity, though beyond the age of four score years, his words of wise counsel and his splendid education caused him to be admired, revered and loved. He led a life of usefulness until summoned to depart, a life of probity and strict integrity, his heart overflowing with kindness. A delightful companion, a steadfast friend, he has left a record of which any man might be proud.

GRAND.—Of the three popular priced houses, the Grand had by far the best offering in "Prince Otto," with Harry Glazier in the title role. Mr. Glazier did work that justifies the expectation of some time seeing him in plays and houses of the highest class. His support was fairly good, John R. Barrett, Elizabeth Lea, Catherine Countin and Matthew McGinnis having the leading roles. This week "The Little Minister" is here.

HAVILIN'S.—Manager Garen had a rather mediocre attraction at Havilin's in "The Gambler's Daughter." It is a conventional melodrama, possessing little to recommend it. Elsie Crescy, in the title role, showed considerable talent, but her support was not strong. This week, "On the Stroke of Twelve."

IMPERIAL.—"The Village Parson" drew a very good attendance throughout the week, and gave satisfaction. The characters were portrayed intelligently, and the lines well delivered. While there were no new situations developed, the action of the piece was strong and interest well sustained. This week the Wilbur Opera Co. begins a three weeks' engagement.

NOTES.—A musical comedy, "A Welsh Rarebit," will be offered week of 13 by the Wilbur Opera Co. at the Imperial. It is the work of two St. Louis men. The book is by Hiram W. Hayes and the score by Chas. Kunkel. It is a new departure for St. Louis to see the Wilbur Opera Co., which many Eastern people were familiar with many years ago. Perhaps the organization improves with age, though it is to be hoped that the theory does not prevent the infusion of new blood in the chorus. Their three weeks' engagement at popular prices should be a profitable one.

KANSAS CITY.—At the Grand Opera House (Hudson & Judah, managers) Chauncey Olcott, in his new play, "Garret O'Magh," had phenomenal business last week. Hundreds were turned away at every performance; the house sold out three days in advance. The matinees packed the far seats of the top galleries. Mr. Olcott's business has increased every year, but this engagement breaks his record. The show scored a big hit. Mr. Olcott was in fine voice, and he established himself more of a favorite than ever. Curtain calls were so frequent as to become monotonous. Those deserving mention in the support were: Margaret Fitzpatrick, Edith Barker, Louise Merrell, Chas. M. Collins, Daniel Gilfeather, Paul Everett, Luke Martin and Elizabeth Washburn. This week, Hanlon's "Rupert," next week, "The Village Postmaster."

THE ORPHEUM (Martin Lehman, manager).—Last week's bill was good from start to finish, and big houses applauded it. The leading attraction was the late Frederick McKinley making his speech at the Buffalo Exposition was a feature in itself. It is a magnificent likeness and should be preserved. This week's bill will be: Louise Thorndyke-Boucault, the Savans, Platt and Sutherland, Orestes Baker, Memphis Kennedy, Maxmillian and Shields, and the Beaux and Belles Octette.

THE AUDITORIUM (Woodward & Burgess, managers).—Last week the Woodward Stock Co. gave a fine rendition of "Paul Kavanar," the proprietors of the Century Hotel and Theatre were here last Wednesday on a business trip. Owen Buckley, doorkeeper of the Grand Opera House, is slowly convalescing from his long illness. His place is being filled by Ben Rosenthal in a highly satisfactory manner. Al Strode, the lobby director of the Orpheum, is launching out, and has opened a swell "eatery" across the street from the theatre.

THE CENTURY (George Andrews, general manager).—The best production which the Andrews Stock Opera Co. has yet given was in evidence last week, when "Martha" was sung. The audiences also increased. This week a double bill, "Cavaleria Rusticana" and "The Mikado," will be sung. GILPIN OPERA HOUSE (E. S. Brigham, manager).—"Big business" is the same old cry at Manager Brigham's money maker. Last week "On the Stroke of Twelve" had big houses, and the melodrama was applauded and hissed in turn.

COLUMBIAN.—The Forepaugh-Sells Bros. Circus packed the canvas twice on Sept. 23. A fine performance was given. Martin Beck was in the city last week visiting the Orpheum people. Ed. and J. T. Butler, proprietors of the Century Hotel and Theatre, were here last Wednesday on a business trip. Owen Buckley, doorkeeper of the Grand Opera House, is slowly convalescing from his long illness. His place is being filled by Ben Rosenthal in a highly satisfactory manner. Al Strode, the lobby director of the Orpheum, is launching out, and has opened a swell "eatery" across the street from the theatre.

—Miss Simplicity.—A musical comedy. In two acts, book by R. A. Barnett, music by H. L. Hartz, was given its first professional performance Sept. 27, at Allentown, Pa., by Frank Daniels and company. It was originally produced at the Tremont Theatre, Boston, Feb. 25, by the Bank Officers' Association (non-professionals).

NEW YORK CITY.

Review and Comment.—Three more theatres threw open their doors last week, and three plays new to this city were presented, each of which met with a favorable reception. The most important of these events was the reopening of the MANHATTAN THEATRE, under the new management of Harrison Grey Fiske, which occurred Tuesday, Sept. 24. The house will be the metropolitan home of Mrs. Fiske, who will annually play long engagements therein. Her present engagement will last until February. The management promises that during Mrs. Fiske's absence in the Spring, new plays will be produced, a somewhat vague promise for the satisfactory fulfillment of which we may patiently wait. Further mention of the opening of this house, and a review of the play presented, will be found elsewhere in this issue. When the THEATRE IMPERIAL opened for the season, on Sept. 23, "The Bonnie Brier Bush" was seen for the first time in this city, and J. H. Stoddard made his metropolitan debut as a star. David Warfield made his metropolitan stellar debut at the BROADWAY THEATRE on Sept. 23, in "The Auctioneer," a three act comedy by Lee Arthur and Charles Klein. The continued attractions for the week ending Sept. 28 were: John Drew at the EMPIRE, E. H. Sothern at the GARDEN, Bertha Gailard at the LYCEUM, "Captain Jinks" at the GARRICK, Wm. Faversham at the CRITERION, James K. Hackett at WALLACK'S, Rogers Bros. at the KNICKERBOCKER, "The Messenger Boy" at DALY'S, the Castle Square Opera Company at the BROADWAY, Andrew Mack at the HERALD SQUARE, "Florinda" at the CASINO, "Arizona" at the ACADEMY OF MUSIC, "The King's Carnival" at the NEW YORK, "The Ladies' Paradise" at the METROPOLITAN OPERA HOUSE, the stock company at the AMERICAN, "Hoity Toity" at WEBER & FIELDS, the stock company at the MURRAY HILL, and "Up York State" at the FOURTEENTH STREET. The one last named having closed upon that date. At Manager Proctor's four houses, the FIFTH AVENUE, the TWENTY-THIRD STREET, the FIFTY-EIGHTH STREET and the ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIFTH STREET, plays by his stock companies, with added vaudeville features, continued to meet with public favor. The one week stands closing Sept. 28 were: "Treasure Island" at the THIRD AVENUE, "The Brixton Burglary" at the GRAND OPERA HOUSE, "San Toy" at the HARLEM OPERA HOUSE, and "Lost River" at the METROPOLIS. Variety entertainment was furnished at TONY PASTOR'S, KEITH'S UNION SQUARE, the LONDON, the DEWEY, HURTIQ & SEAMON'S, the OLYMPIC, the ORPHEUM, the ATLANTIC GARDEN, and MINER'S BOWERY and EIGHTH AVENUE. At the GERMANIA THEATRE "The Land of the Free" continued to be presented in German. The news received here last week of the death of the veteran player, James B. Roberts, was the cause of genuine sorrow to those who had enjoyed the privilege of acquaintance with him. Although he had long ago retired from the stage he was known even to many of the younger members of the profession through his occasional visits to the home of the local lodge of the Actors' Order of Friendship, and his mental and physical activity, though beyond the age of four score years, his words of wise counsel and his splendid education caused him to be admired, revered and loved. He led a life of usefulness until summoned to depart, a life of probity and strict integrity, his heart overflowing with kindness. A delightful companion, a steadfast friend, he has left a record of which any man might be proud.

Manhattan Theatre (Harrison Grey Fiske, manager).—This house opened under its new management on Sept. 24, when Mrs. Fiske presented a new four act play, entitled "Miranda of the Balcovy" written by Anne Crawford Fleener, and founded on the novel by A. E. W. Mason. The house has been very elaborately and tastefully redecorated, and in artistic beauty and harmony of color reflects great credit upon all concerned in the new creation. Of construction, it is able to remedy many of the original faults of construction, but it is announced the improvements are continued back of the curtain line, including a new stage and the use of fireproof material wherever it was possible to use it instead of inflammable material. The effort to secure comfort in the auditorium by the introduction of cold air has not been thoroughly successful, and the heat upon the opening night was almost unbearable. The artistic aims of the manager, as announced upon the programme, are most praiseworthy and have the ring of sincerity. In many respects proof of this sincerity was afforded in the opening production, but unfortunately the play selected for the occasion was less praiseworthy than most of those in which Mrs. Fiske has recently appeared. Her present play had its first production on Sept. 2, at the Academy of Music, Montreal, Can. It was then found to be in some respects unsatisfactory, and afterwards subjected to revision. Its faults were, however, evidently fundamental, but it is probable that the merits of the production and of some portions of the performance may secure for it a satisfactory run. The securing of a permanent metropolitan house for the exploitation of Mrs. Fiske's talents is a commendable enterprise, and will doubtless be viewed with favor by her large following in this city, which is not likely to be severely critical, especially in view of the artistic beauty of the stage settings of the present production and the excellence of the stage management. The play, however, apart from its pictorial embellishment, arouses little interest, and excites no sympathy, and in less competent hands would scarcely bear the test of stage presentation. It affords Mrs. Fiske inadequate opportunity for the display of her powers, for it holds not the mirror up to nature, and not only lacks illusion, but the element of suspense. Thus handicapped Mrs. Fiske showed in her performance no new merits, but kept in view the faults that always mar her acting, the low tones and rapid speech which frequently make her lines unintelligible, her too great repression, and her family colloquialism. It

PARK (Will McAllister, manager).—T
Spooner Stock Co. attracted a large ho
Sept. 30. Henry Guy Carleton's three society drama, "The Butterflies," was the attraction. The Continental Theatre did a good business last week. Oct. 7, "Madame Sans Gene."

COLUMBIA (David A. Wells, manager).—The Greenwald Stock Co. has selected "Fanchon, the Critic" for the current week. An opening feature was made of the May pole dance in the second act. Miss Bergere will be seen in the title role, and Mr. Böhler playing the part of Landry. "An Enemy for the King" will follow with a favorable impression. Week Oct. 7, "Northern Lights."

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (New Parker, manager).—"The Girl from Maxim's" is the attraction at this house for the current week, commencing Sept. 30, before a large audience. The girl from whom the piece takes its title will be played by Lena Merrill. Others in the cast are: Florence Gerald, A. H. Turner, Joseph Allen and Harry Dull. Business reported good for last week. Oct. 7, "The Four Cohans."

THEATRE (Nick Norton, manager).—Williams and Walker and their own big company, in a musical farce comedy, was the attraction here, opening with a matinee Sept. 30, to a crowded house, presenting a chorus of thirty well trained voices. Many new songs were cleverly sung. Good business last week. Oct. 7, "Lost in the Desert."

CRITERION (Frank E. Baker, manager).—The Baker Stock Company presented, to a crowded house, Sept. 30, the successful play, "Captain Swift." Fletcher Harvey assumes the leading part. Others are: Edward M. Ellis, Thomas Meek, Alice Riker and other members of the regular company. "Why Smith Left Home" was attended by crowded houses last week. Week of Oct. 7, "What Happened to Jones."

THEATRE (Manager Williams has arranged for his patrons a very interesting bill for the current week, opening with a matinee Sept. 30. The headliner for the week is Eugene Cowles, who distinguished himself in "Robin Hood," "Rob Roy," "The Fortune Teller" and "The Two Orphans," making his debut in vaudeville at this house. Others on the bill are: D'Arto Troupe (six in number), Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elmonde, in "A Soldier of Propriety," the Melotz Troupe, Charles T. Aldrich, J. W. Winton, Callahan and Mack, presenting scenes in "Shantytown," Hendrix and Prescott, Al. Leach, and the Three Roschubs; Lew Sully and the moving pictures of the late President's funeral. Business good last week.

HYDE & BEHMAN'S (Henry W. Behman, manager).—This clever bill has been arranged for the current week, beginning with a matinee Sept. 30. Milton and Dolly Nobles head the bill for the week, in "Why Walker Returned." Others on the bill are: Grace Van Stadford, Tom Lewis and Sam Ryan, Artie Hall, Bellamy, and the "Three Brothers," Palfrey and Hamilton, Julian Rose and the Barrows. Business large last week.

STAR (Wm. L. Bissel, manager).—"The Brigadiers" will be the attraction at this house for the current week, beginning with a matinee Sept. 30. The play is a new novelty, "The Vanishing Brigadiers," and "The Fete of the Gondoliers." The olio includes: Leda Dexter, in "The Modern Drama"; George and Laura Lewis, Edwina Mercer, McDonald Brothers, Kell and Reno, Percy Walling, and Herol and Berol, in "The Artist and Rag Picker." A good business last week.

AMPHION.—"This house will begin its season 7, with Francis Wilson and company of players, in "The Strollers."

GARDY.—Manager Bennett Wilson this week presents "The Dairy Farm," with its author, Eleanor Merron, in her original creation of Minty. Many of those who appeared in the play when here last season are with the company now. Then they played to crowded houses at each performance, and it looks as if they would duplicate their former success this season. The opening performance, Sept. 30, was to the house's capacity. "The White Slave" played to standing room only houses at nearly every performance last week. The following attraction is "The Dairy Farm."

FAITON'S.—"The Banker's Daughter" is this week presented by Mr. Payton and his company. That carefulness to details that has characterized Mr. Payton's productions is noticeable in this play. Mr. Payton plays the part of George Washington Phillips with vim and dash. Miss Reed is cast for Lillian Westbrook. Kirk Brown plays John Strebelev, and Mr. Hoey is Baggage. The opening house, night of 30, was crowded. The usual big business last week. Week of Oct. 7, "A Pleasant Valley."

NOVETY.—"Weber's Parisian Widows" furnishes the entertainment for Manager Williams' patrons this week. The opening house, night of 30, was large. The olio: "The Three Savarros," Snyder and Buckley, Nelson and Milledge, Jordan and Webb, the Gaiety Sisters, Mildred Murray and Charles Falk, assisted by Charles Lemon. The burlesque presented is "A Day at West Point." Good business last week. Coming, week of 7, Weber's Dainty Duchess.

GOTHARD.—"The Wife" is Manager Gothard's offering this week. Incidental to the play Emma De Castro introduces some coon songs. A new departure was made on afternoon of Oct. 1, when a "tea" was given on the stage after the performance, which was attended by the audience and children of the audience. Another new feature is a Sunday night concert, which was inaugurated Sept. 29. The audience at the opening, 30, was of large proportions. Satisfactory business last week. Week of Oct. 7, "Lynwood."

UNIQUE.—Manager Frank B. Carr had a crowded house night of Sept. 30. The entertainment is furnished by the Rose Hill English Folly Co. The entire company and a chorus of shapely women presented the opening musical comedy, "Madame's Night Off," and the closing extravaganza, "A Man from Away Back." The olio: Kathryn Lowe Palmer, McFarland and Earl, Nolan and White, Hill and Mills, Sullivan and Weber, and Jerry and Hughes. Big business last week. The following attraction is the New Trocadero Burlesquers.

LYCEUM.—"A Ward of France" is this week presented by Manager Phillips' Stock Co. The opening, night of Sept. 30, was to a crowded house. Good business last week. The underline for week of Oct. 7 is "Hoodman Riled."

NEW YORK STATE.

Buffalo.—The beautiful fall weather, and the fact that but a month remains of the Pan-American Exposition, are proving powerful inducements in the direction of a large attendance. Railway Day, Sept. 28, with Senator Chauncey M. Depew as the orator, was the record breaker, the turnstiles registering 117,678, which is a few more than were present on Midway Day. The railroad men joyfully partook of the exercises and sports, many of them supplanting the tired voices of speakers with a laugh of laughter, joining in the procession and festivities quite generally. Of course the terrible calamity of the assassination of our much loved President had a depressing effect on the fair which it will never get over. Festival Week, Sept. 30-Oct. 6, and an enormous patronage is confidently expected.

STAR THEATRE (J. R. Stirling, manager).—"The Bostonians" have the floor this week. Blanche Walsh, in "Joan of the Sword Hand," next week. Benman Thompson, in "The Old Homestead," drew nicely, and pleased, as usual.

SEA'S GARDEN THEATRE (M. Shea, manager).—"Fiddle-Dee-Dee" continues. Truly a knockout heading the cast. In addition there will appear: Keno, Welch and Melrose, Pierce and O'Connell. Business good.

ACADEMY.—Manager Salisbury's "A Trip to Buffalo" is still the attraction at this house, and is doing well, with performances twice daily. Motion pictures of Niagara Falls and the navigation of the Rapids are features.

TECK THEATRE (J. Laughlin, manager).—"Constantinople" is continued, to uniformly good attendance.

LYCEUM THEATRE (J. Laughlin, manager).—Nellie McHenry, in "Miss, the Southern Belle," included in the company are: H. B. Bradley, Frank Dayton, F. A. Yelvington, Ray, L. Finlay, L. J. Loring, William Rennie, H. B. Barnum, Ida Rock and Lottie Burke. "The Road to India" next week, Terry McGovern appearing.

CONVENTION HALL.—Maurice Grau's Metropolitan Opera Co. will give a season of grand opera here Oct. 16-19. S. Kronberg is local manager.

LAFAYETTE THEATRE (Kernan & Bagge, managers).—"The City Club" is the current entertainment. "Slaves of Opium" next week. Rilly and Wood did nicely.

COURT STREET THEATRE (Gus Wegfarth, manager).—Miles & Van Osten's "Devil's Daughter" continues its long Pan-American engagement, to substantial patronage.

NOTES.—Officers of the Great West Indian Exposition, to be held this winter at Charleston, S. C., are in attendance at the Pan-American Exposition, for the transfer of the exhibits thither and booking the same for an enterprise. Many familiar faces of the Midway spotters are seen on new billboards, and these gentlemen of talk and persuasion will soon pass through Buffalo's exit gates to other fields. Boner, talking horse, is a very popular Midway attraction. Boner, a very popular Midway attraction, is a talking horse, with its creaks, elephants, the theatres and diversified attractions, is daily visited by throngs. Manager Ed. H. Robinson is the busiest man there.

ROCHESTER.—At the Lyceum Theatre (A. E. Wolff, manager).—"The Girl from Maxim's" drew a fair sized audience Sept. 23. "Foxy Grandpa" had very light business Sept. 24. Coming: "The Sign of the Cross" Sept. 25. "The Sign of the Cross" Sept. 26. "The Sign of the Cross" Sept. 27. "The Sign of the Cross" Sept. 28. "The Sign of the Cross" Sept. 29. ## MRS. F. F. PROCTOR DEAD.

Mrs. F. F. Proctor, wife of the well known theatrical proprietor of this city, died Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28, at the family residence, Larchmont Manor, N. Y., after a long illness, of heart disease, complicated with dropsy. She had been for many years prominent in social and religious circles of Larchmont, where her numerous mostenacious charities had rendered her to large circle of friends. Throughout her long and painful illness she bore her sufferings with singular patience and fortitude. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and a son. Mrs. Proctor was a native of New York City, her maiden name having been Mary Ann Daily. She made her debut at the age of thirteen, appearing as a singer, at the New Bowery Theatre, the occasion being a benefit for the veteran actress, Mrs. W. G. Jones. She subsequently appeared with Kate Fisher's Dramatic Co., and later traveled with her husband throughout the country. She was known professionally as Polly Daily. Her attractive and magnetic personality won for her the admiration of the public, and for perhaps a decade she was among the most popular and highest salaried artists in her branch of the profession. She was wedded to Mr. Proctor (who was famous as one of the Lavantina Brothers) about twenty-nine years ago, and soon afterwards she retired permanently from the stage. Her unflinching good nature, her generous disposition and her many deeds of charity made her a favorite, not alone in home circles, but with all who enjoyed her acquaintance and friendship. Of her three children, one the wife of Lester H. Ryley, of Larchmont; another, Henrietta Proctor, is unmarried, while her only son, Frederick F. Proctor Jr., is engaged in business with his father. The domestic life of Mr. and Mrs. Proctor was ideal in its comfort and tranquility. For many years they resided in Albany, N. Y., but since 1889 had made their home in Larchmont, where, at their beautiful and extensive villa, they had gathered about them a large circle of friends, who will join the family in mourning her death.

"Mama's New Husband," a new comedy, in which Chas. J. Stine and Olive Evans are featured, is doing a big business and giving great satisfaction. It is booked until May 31.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 18.

The London theatrical season of 1901-02 may now be said to be in the full sweep of its flood tide. The crop of novelties has thus far not been very startling, and the revivals, either American or old London successes, have rather overshadowed the fresh attractions. The star shows in the way of original plays are, however, not yet presented, but they will soon be crowding on each other's heels, Drury Lane's big melodrama, "The Great Millionaire," being due tomorrow evening as a robust and feeling starter. The German-American (or American-German) farce, "Are You a Mason?" has scored a genuine hit at the Shaftesbury, and the New York importation, "The Whirl of the Town," has made a mild success at the regenerated Adelphi, now called the Century Theatre. These I need not describe in detail, so far as relates to their plots (or lack of plots), as they are both familiar to American playgoers, and space is precious.

I have already sent you the full cast of "Are You a Mason?" and need only add that, led by Geo. Giddens, as Amos Bloodgood, the company has scored very handsomely in an individual sense and superbly as a whole. The play is at the moment the craze of London.

In the case of "The Whirl of the Town" there is again the natural disappointment which must follow the comparison with "The Belle of New York." It is a comparison which is very unjust, and, in fact, is odious to the newer show, Madge Lessing and Henry E. Dixey are very highly mentioned, and credit is given freely to the company as a whole, but both the book and the score are compared unfavorably with the best.

So many of the American players of the same flimsy nature. As The Referee neatly puts it: "If the public wants this sort of thing there is really no reason why our managers should go to America for it. We have authors of our own who can write just as well as the Americans, and the company includes Henry E. Dixey, Will Phillips, John Le Hay, Augustus Bruno, Donald Hall, Charles Cox, Frank Belcher, James Bell, Daniel Baker, R. C. Barry, Arthur Hill, F. Almond, R. Laidman, Ed. Ray, Trilix, Frizman, Condie, Powell, Ermeline Earle, Vaah! Earle, Miss M. Williams, Lena Benson, Ruth Lytton, Rose Kerker and Madge Lessing.

Edna May is doing nicely in the revival of "The Girl in the Moon," the house of the piece fall to Eric Greene, in the title role, and G. P. Huntley, as the Earl of Plantagenet.

There were no performances at the Comedy (Nat Goodwin's season) or the Century on the night of the funeral. The Kendalls have begun prosperously at the St. James' with "The Elder Miss Blossom," and Mrs. Patrick Campbell has scored with her revival of "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray." She is said to be engaged to be married to Gerald du Maurier of her company.

Little Marjorie Murray, of "The Silver King" company, reached her thirteenth birthday 6, and was the recipient of many presents from private friends, her manager, Mr. M. J. P. H. and of floral tributes from the members of the company. She has now played Clasie, in "The Silver King," close upon 7,000 nights without being out of the bill.

Seah Bernhard has signed a contract to produce at her theatre in Paris a drama which Marion Crawford has written on the subject of Francesca da Rimini. Mr. Crawford wrote the play in English, but made a rough French translation, which he read at Mr. Bernhard's place, where he merely indicated the actual version is to be done by Marcel Schwob, who made the prose translation of "Hamlet" acted by Bernhard.

Mr. Schwob is in no sense a collaborator with Mr. Bernhard, his work being merely an accurate translation of the drama as it was accepted by Bernhard. Mr. Crawford has drawn his play from the true story of Francesca da Rimini, and not from the current legends. He has strong evidence to show that in the course of the work he has found the actual room in which Francesca was murdered in the castle near Rimini.

A romance of the same room is recalled by the recent death of John Taylor, of the Dryden Press, Northampton. A few years ago he was set up to Sotheby's a little book of Thackeray's which fetched £290. It had been offered in Mr. Taylor's catalogue only a few months before for 2s. 6d. It was "The Esquisses," a farce, in two acts, with etchings by the artist. The play has never been acted, and only one other copy exists.

Captain Basil Hood has contracted to supply four operas for the Savoy Theatre and the next of these, "The Little Mermaid," is now being prepared for production. Preparations are proceeding for private Christmas afternoon entertainment to be given at the Savoy, to be entitled "The Little Mermaid." The characters are a prince, a princess, a little mermaid, a merman, a sea witch, and a sea fairy. The story represents the entrance to a cave situated on a rocky shore, on which is stranded a wreck.

Claire Poncefort, who appears in "Sherlock Holmes" at the Lyceum, has pleasure in recollection connected with the management of the theatre, as was Irving who gave her her first engagement. Miss Poncefort toured with Mrs. Kendal for eleven months on her first visit to America, in which country she had lived as child for some years. It is interesting to record that her mother, Georgiana Poncefort, was engaged for twenty-four years at the Lyceum.

The veteran music hall manager, Charles Morton, is in London again after his holiday in Cornwall. His vacation was well spent, feeling greatly benefited by his trip.

Vesta Tilley's health has of late not been good. She is staying at Margate with her husband, Walter De Frece, and the invigoration of the sea air is doing her good.

Harry Tate, the mimic, has been engaged by Mr. Morton to play "No. 7" and "Content of Court" at the Palace, and has been secured for Christmas for the Stoke Newington Theatre, where he will play the part of Abanazar. He will play the part of a new sketch, entitled "The Station Master."

For his pantomime at the Camden Theatre E. G. Saunders will draw largely on the music halls. Ugo Biondi, who will make his first appearance in pantomime in London, will play the part of a detective, a role that should suit his quick change business. The subject is "Dick Wittington," and for the part of Dick Mr. Saunders has secured Marie Dainton. She made one of the few successes in "The Belle of Bohemia" at the Apollo Theatre. Her other roles for the Camden pantomime include: Grell and Grey, grotesques; Maitland Marier and George Gray. Fred Rolph will produce it.

The Wittingtons tried a beautiful stage effect at the Palace, Cambridge, the other evening. The stage is draped in black, the artists appear completely in white satin, the electric light being ingeniously applied to heighten the effect.

Miss Martha, the queen of the air, was giving her dramatic performance last week at the Borough Circus, North Shields, when she slipped and fell to the ground. Fortunately she sustained no injury beyond a severe shaking, and reappeared a few minutes afterwards in order to reassure the audience.

Marie Gantier, of "Vanishing Lady" and "She" fame, has been compelled to consult a specialist in consequence of a strain brought on by lifting a heavy box. He has ordered her complete rest for several weeks.

Frank Slinn, who was once business manager at Colins, has disposed of his interest in The Grapes, in the Borough. Under his cultivation The Grapes have matured, and have now yielded Mr. Slinn a handsome sum.

Charles Domino, of the Two Dominos, who has been seriously ill, is now progressing slowly but surely, and hopes to be able to resume business in a few weeks.

The New Bedford, when it reopens in October, will most likely be run on the two houses a night principle with Harry Day, chief of Macdermott's Agency, as manager.

Arthur Saxton takes exception to some statements in Lawrence Levey's article contribution to "Sandow's Magazine." Mr. Saxton declares that many athletes have used the "Peggy" bar bell, including, on occasion, Sandow himself. Mr. Saxton denies that his apparatus is "tricky." He submits it to the audience nightly for every possible test of its good faith. Mr. Saxton repeats his open challenge to the world including Sandow.

Alf. Lotto, who is engaged to Ada Cerito, the popular comedienne, and daughter of Papa Brown, goes to Australia in November under management with George Musgrove. Young Lotto will take a partner, and will introduce the new racing track and his trick riding thereon. He will be absent from England for some time, but the show with which he has been so long connected will be continued here under the management of his father, Jack Lotto. "Peggy" is also going to Australia shortly.

On Oct. 7 Mr. Slater produces at the Alhambra his new ballet, "Gretina Green," invented by Charles Wilson and composed by George W. Byng. The piece is best described as a burlesque. The scene reveals the green of Gretina, where the villagers have assembled to celebrate the coming of age of the young squire, who wishes to marry the girl of his heart and is sternly pood-pood by his father. But the lovers find in the blacksmith a friend, who hits upon a plan for gaining the wished for consent to their union. The arrival of a party of mummers affords occasion for the introduction of a pleasant variety entertainment, including rope walking, a Punch and Judy show and other features. The blacksmith's trick succeeds, and all ends happily, to the stimulating accompaniment of wedding bells.

William Finney, the professional swimmer and diver, performed the sensational feat of diving into the Thames from one of the towers of the Albert Suspension Bridge, at Battersea, a distance of 100 feet, recently. The dive was witnessed by a large crowd. The diver entered the water head first and was promptly picked up by a small boat in attendance, and rowed ashore. The dive is considered the highest that has ever been made into the Thames. The recent report that another well known swimmer, J. B. Johnson, is dead, was a mistake. He is alive and well.

John Read, who, with his wife, Beatrice Johnson, was the popular vocalist at the Lyceum in the seventies and eighties, was the last to fulfill the office of chairman at Collins. He is to take a benefit at Myddleton Hall 30. Mr. Read's eldest son is the stage manager at the Palace, Hammer Smith.

Mrs. "Lampy" company had a sensational experience the other day at Douglas, when they attempted to start for Dublin. On Saturday night they went to the pier with the object of getting on board the Yarrow, but the weather was so boisterous that they found it hopeless to attempt to embark. The vessel smashed four hawes, and another vessel with which she collided was nearly split in two. The strong breeze broke the rope by which the Yarrow was swinging in the outer harbor and drove her ashore between the piers. Amid much excitement the life boat crew and the rocket brigade made ready for rescue, but the Yarrow's own steam, aided by the rising tide, swung her back, and she was towed to her berth. By Sunday morning the violence of the wind and sea had considerably abated, and half the company sailed for Dublin. The vessel arrived at the North Wall, Dublin, at half-past four in the evening. Mrs. Langtry and her regulars proceeded to Liverpool, where they embarked for the Irish capital. The scenery and dresses had been fortunately forwarded beforehand.

John F. Leonard and Barney Fagan will shortly produce in England, the American production, "Paradise Alley." The company will consist of twenty-nine performers, including John F. Leonard, Barney Fagan, Henrietta Byron and Mazie King. Miss King has recovered from her recent illness, and will appear in her original character of Ed.

Geo. Edwards is carrying his legal fight with the executors of the late Augustin Daly to the highest of all English courts, the bench of "Law Lords" in the House of Lords. The lower courts have decided in his considerable emphasis, that Edwards was entirely in the wrong in forcibly taking possession of Daly's Theatre, and his high handed action in the matter, the legal costs of which have been very heavy, and which have fallen on him, will be finally decided when their lordships pass upon it.

The Bedford will be reopened Sept. 30 or Oct. 7, probably under the management of Harry Day. This has been arranged between the mortgages and Macdermott's Agency. P. Niemman, by the way, has been appointed the sole provincial representative of Macdermott's.

Savage South Africa has left Ireland for Manchester, and will, at the close of the season, be taken to Australia.

Carl Hertz is touring the provinces with his usual success.

Geo. Kollitt, the well known song writer, is suffering from a severe case of blood poisoning.

Mark, "the concertina king," has returned from his American trip well pleased with his experiences.

Lieutenant Dan Godfrey, the veteran bandmaster of the Grenadier Guards, celebrated his seventieth birthday last week.

Once a bride, and the happy nobleman who has made the latest theatrical alliance of a matrimonial nature is the Earl of Clonmell, who is a young Irishman, in his twenty-fourth year. He is the seventh earl of the title, and succeeded to it three years ago. He has a country seat near Leamington, in England, and one at Shraffton, in the County Kildare, Ireland. The estates are, however, of little value, and the late earl, father of the present one, did not leave over £7,000. The bride, who is now the Countess of Clonmell, was Rachel Beridge, the daughter of a farmer near Rugby, and she has been on the stage for some years in the provinces, her early training being under the late Sarah Thorne. The bride's parents are both dead, and she went on the stage to support her younger brothers and sisters. The wedding was a very quiet one, and took place at Brighton. A local paper published a statement that "the bridegroom carried one of his arms in a sling, having recently returned from America, where he had been shot."

The Earl of Rosalyn, now touring as a member of Mrs. Langtry's Co., has made an arrangement to settle a portion of his indebtedness. The proposition is for the payment of 14 shillings in the pound on "all provable debts contracted before November, 1897," and a sum of £8,000 has been loaned or given to the Earl, so as to enable him to make this offer. The creditors have accepted it, and were probably rather astonished at settling such a large and unexpected dividend.

Other theatrical weddings of recent date include those of Hettie Zillwood, to Fred Osmond; Ada Gower, to Geo. Tempest; Nellie Margaret Gregory (Nellie Audley), to Ashton Forbes Winslow; Miss Bassett (sister to Leon-Bassett), to J. C. Moore; Hettie Johnson, to John Kavanagh; Mabel Frickleton (Mabel Clay), to John F. Trevort; Beatrice Abrahams, to N. Simmons; Emily Warner's Agency; Isabel Oliver (of the Craig; Edith Whitehouse, to William Burton Fleetwood (Colin Hazlewood); Miss Edwin Porteus, to J. Christie; Mary Harris, to Geo. Proctor; Gertrude Jessy Rolis Harcourt, to Beresford Lovett; and Lillian Ellen Clerly, to Valentine Nossiter.

A separate paragraph is deserved by Alfred Sinclair (late Alfred Linnet, of Linnet and Starling) and Sarah Ann Rixall Watkinson, who were married at Christ Church, Liverpool, and added to their formal notice in the papers the words "Lovers thirty-three years ago; happy at last."

Two golden weddings have recently been celebrated, those of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews (the parents of the Seven Sisters Matthews) and Mr. and Mrs. David Allen. Also the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belcham. I note, by the way, that the erroneous item relating to the reported marriage of the great Italian actress, Adelaide Ristori, is still current. It is her daughter, not herself, who is the bride.

The recent obituary list includes the names of James Martin, of "Martin's Band," Liverpool; Mrs. Harold Graham, aged 16 (Charlotte Graham, of the Eldorado Theatre of America), wife of Harold Graham, of the Four Aces; Harold de Grand, aged 20; Mrs. (Emily) Edward J. George, of 11 Malvern, for forty years a well known provincial actress; Mrs. Blackwell (mother of Mrs. Roy Astor), Gore Forest one of the best; Mrs. Cunningham (sister of Annie Bullen); Emma Leitch (sister of Mrs. Conynghame); John Hugh Dempsey, Mrs. (Margaret) Edwin W. Smith, Mrs. Geo. Villiers (Dora Plange), Prof. Willis, "comical conjurer" of the Aquarium; Harriet Lawrence Agouti (theater of Madame Louise Bridgeport on Mourning le Grand, aged 62; Mrs. Walter Hann (Bertha Bull), leaving a daughter one week old; H. E. Marston, aged 54 years, for many years acting manager of the Theatre Royal, Dublin, and of the Theatre of the Lyceum; Michael McMahon, youngest son of Francis McMahon; Septimus Tate Story (brother of Edward Story-Gorton), Sarah Thompson (mother of Mrs. Edmund Lysons), John Louis (William Lysons, M. #### ILLINOIS.

Chicago.—The coming of Jefferson De Angeli to the Grand, and the beginning of the career of W. S. Cleveland's minstrel house in the down town district, are events of chief interest this week. The week too is important as the last of that big favorite, "King Dodo," at the Studebaker. Next Saturday will witness also the end of the engagement of "Way Down East," at McVicker's, and "Mrs. Dane's Defence," at Powers'. The coming week is one of bright promises. The seven days ending Saturday, Sept. 29, were ones of splendid prosperity. More than one house record was equaled, and in the case of the Illinois, surpassed. The weather was a strong factor in the favor of large business, and the attractions offered certainly deserved the patronage they received.

Grand (Harry Hamlin, manager).—Jefferson De Angeli began a short engagement at this house Sunday night, 29, appearing in "A Royal Rogue." With the exception of Helen Byron, the supporting company is about the same as last season. William Collier, in "On the Quiet," ended his two weeks' engagement here with large houses.

ILLINOIS (Will J. Davis, manager).—"Ben Hur" continues here to splendid business. Previous excellent records at this house have been surpassed. It is no exaggeration to say that in the day time the line before the box office has not been broken since the sale of seats opened. It is known that on last week Friday the advance sale amounted to $18,000, an unequalled record. With such conditions prevailing, it is hard to see when the engagement will end. There were rumors that "Ben Hur" would be produced on the Auditorium stage, but these stories were without foundation.

POWERS' (Harry J. Powers, manager).—The Empire Theatre Company drew big houses all last week. The great audiences were enthusiastic over the manner in which "Mrs. Dane's Defence" was presented. Margaret Anglin gives one of the best bits of emotional acting ever seen in this city. Charles Richmond gives a consistent, able performance. The support is exceptional. This is the last week of the engagement, and the advance sale indicates excellent business until the end of the run. The German Dramatic Co. presented "Die Fremde" Sunday night, 29. This organization was warmly welcomed at its opening last week. The aggregation is stronger than last year's company. Next week Joseph Jefferson will open a two weeks' engagement.

STUDEBAKER (Louis Francis Brown, manager).—"King Dodo" is now upon its nineteenth and last week at this house. Memory does not recall another musical production that lasted nearly five months in this city, and the writers and managers of this production certainly have reason to feel elated at the phenomenal success of the piece. Last week was one of well filled or capacity houses, and this the last week will be a big one without doubt. Next week "Petticoats and Bayonets," a new comedy romance, will open a two weeks' engagement, and will introduce to the public Arthur Byron in a stellar role. The new piece is the first dramatic effort of Asa Steele, heretofore known as a contributor to magazines. Jane Oaker will be the leading woman.

McVICKER'S (Jacob Litt, manager).—"Way Down East" is now on its seventh and last week, a fine record considering the many times the play has been presented in Chicago on previous seasons. Last week again big houses ruled, every seat being filled frequently. Next week "Foxy Quiller" will come to this house. This Brady production is new to Chicagoana. The entertainment is for one week only.

DEARBORN (W. W. Tillotson, manager).—The Dearborn stock is presenting "Because She Loved Him So" this week. The outlook for this season is the brightest, for last week the house company showed that it was stronger than at any time in its history. Emmett Corrigan, in "The Only Way," won much favor. Miss Reals, the leading woman, has lost none of that charm and ability which made her popular with this house's constituency last season. Large audiences were the rule last week.

CLEVELAND'S MINSTREL THEATRE (W. S. Cleveland, manager).—This house (17-21 Van Buren Street, formerly Stelway Hall) opened its doors as the home of minstrel performers Saturday night, 28. A large audience witnessed the initial performance, and the bill gave satisfaction, although there are rough places which must be smoothed over. Lew Spencer's "Married," Raymond Teal's "Good Morning, Carrie," and Willis Sweetnam's "Stuttering Coon" were features of the minstrel first part. This part was neatly set. The men all appeared in full dress suits, and Sweetnam, in particular, made a hit. William Windom sang "I Just Want to Go Back," but he did not come up to expectations. The specialty bill was of good quality, including: Edward French, banjo expert; Willis Sweetnam, M. B. Curtis and Albena De Mer, in a Sam'l of Josen sketch; the Esterbrook Brothers, in a musical act, and William H. Rice, in "The Sing-in-Girl." The house is handsome, although small, is well located, with the best of transportation, and is in experienced hands. It is too early to predict the future, however.

GREAT NORTHERN (D. E. Russell, manager).—Richard Golden, in "Old Jed Prouty," is back here this week to win favor again with this house's constituency. He has always proved a strong drawing card. The company shows few changes from last season. Rose Melville and company, in "Six Hopkins," drew good business last week. "Fell Eye" is next.

OLYMPIC (Kohl & Castle, managers).—The bill for the week of 30 follows: The Smedley Sketch Co., in "The Little Mother;" Stinson and Merton, in "The Unexpected;" Gus Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Crane, in "The Happy Day;" Hacker and Lester, comedy bicycle riders; Mons. Torat, World and Hastings, in a sketch; the Knight Brothers, the Rans, bull dogs; "The Woman in White," the Two Nibbles, John Zimmer, juggler; the Gladstone Sisters, the Bradys, and Suttle and Brown. The Gainsborough Octette, one of the novelties on last week's bill, made a distinctly favorable impression. The audiences were large and manifested satisfaction with the bill as a whole.

CHICAGO OPERA HOUSE (Kohl & Castle, managers).—The bill for the week of 30 follows: Madame Emmy and her canine pets, John Griffith and company, in the garden scene from "Faust;" Billy Clifford, the Mignani Family, Mlle. Azara, Francelli and Lewis, George H. Wood, Paul and Julia Brichard, Fannie Brunswick, Gorman and West, Marian Alsworth, Sam and Ida Kelly, Archie Guerin, and Annie Burt, in a tight wire act. Last week's bill showed few new faces, but the old favorites were warmly applauded by big houses. The full tide of prosperity is setting in at this popular priced circuit of houses and vacant seats will soon be almost unknown.

HAYMARKET (Kohl & Castle, managers).—The bill this week is practically the same as the one presented at the Olympic last week. It follows: The Gainsborough Octette, Carroll Johnson, Fiske and McDonough, Buoman and Adelle, Belle Williams, Dolph and Susie Levine, Lavender and Thompson, John Healy, Brothers Gless, Downey and Willard, Hank Whitcomb, Brothers Roscoe, Lillian Francis, the Northland Quartette, and Laura Hayward. Business last week was good.

MASONIC TEMPLE ROOF THEATRE (J. J. Murdoch, manager).—Maude Lillian Berri makes her debut in vaudeville at this theatre this week. "The Girl with the Auburn Hair" remains another week, having scored her usual hit last week. This week will end her engagement. Hobby Gaylor heads the regular vaudeville force, which includes: Norman Mitchell, xylophonist; Carleton and Terre, in topical songs and stories; Goldmann's dogs and cats; Bright Bros., acrobats, and the Five Juggling Normans. The mild autumn weather was a factor in favor of this house last week, and large attendance ruled.

HOPKINS' (Col. J. D. Hopkins, manager).—Maude Odell, who gained many friends at higher priced theatres in Chicago, this week made her bow to this house's constituency as leading woman of the stock. She has the title role in "Doris," a part which gives her opportunity to show her emotional work. Robert Wayne, May Nannery, Arthur Mackley and others of the stock are in the support. The olio includes: Howard and Burke, Floyd Hunt, boy soprano, and the polyscope. Mr. Wayne, in the dual role in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," last week, showed much ability and was well supported. Business was good. "A Lady of Quality" is next.

ALHAMBRA (R. P. Janette, manager).—James H. Wallick's "When London Sleeps" is the attraction here this week. The play is old to the stage, but has not been seen here for some time. The company comes well heralded. Well filled houses witnessed the performances of "For Her Sake" last week. "Dangers of Paris" is next.

ACADEMY (E. P. Simpson & E. H. Macoy, managers).—"Dangers of Paris" is the play here this week. The name of the chief character in the play is Pierre Valjean, but he has all the attributes of Jean Valjean, the heroic character in Hugo's "Les Miserables." Around this central figure is built a sensational play. The Mittenhall Brothers have mounted the piece in good style. "The Secret Dispatch" drew well last week. "When London Sleeps" is booked for next week.

BIRCH (Macoy & Colvin, managers).—"For Her Sake," the play which did well at the Alhambra last week, holds the boards here this week. "The Eleventh Hour" played to the usual good business here last week. "Across the Desert" is next.

CRITERION (Lincoln J. Carter, manager).—"The Eleventh Hour" is at this house this week. The usual happy condition of affairs should rule. "From Scotland Yard" drew fairly well last week.

NEW AMERICAN (John Connors, manager).—"Ten Nights in a Bar Room" is the attraction here this week. The cast includes: Robert Barrett, Millar Reid, Cyrell Raymond, John Holland, G. W. Clark, Carrie Weller, Lydia Millard and Little Florence Owens. "The Gypsy Princess" witnessed an improvement in business last week, but the attendance is not yet up to expectation.

PEOPLE'S (W. G. Clarke, manager).—May Hosmer and her company are playing "Wicked London," that old standby, this week. Miss Hosmer is supported by the full strength of the house company. "Canille" drew but fair houses last week.

GLICKMAN'S THEATRE (Ellis Glickman, manager).—This house started its new season Sept. 27, with the company announced in this column two weeks ago. The new stock proved of much strength. The attractions announced for this week are: "Rachael" on Monday, "The Jewish Hamlet" on Tuesday, "The Polish Belle" on Wednesday, "The Persecution of the Jews in Spain" Saturday matinee, and "The Jews in Morocco" for the balance of the week.

ORPHEON MUSIC HALL (Harry Samuel, manager).—The stock company which held this stage all summer has left for a brief tour on the road. Nat Fields and Allen Curtis, comedians of the house company, who did much to make this house a winner, were tendered a benefit last week Friday night. Irwin's Big Show succeeded the stock, and holds the stage this week. "Are You an Eagle" is the chief vehicle for the aggregation's efforts. In the olio appear: The Eight Cornellas, the Five Demotrevilles, the Century Comedy Four, Watson and McRobie, Burman, Van and Dolly Jordan. Last week large houses were again drawn. Standing room alone could be had on some nights.

SAM T. JACK'S (Sidney J. Eason, manager).—M. M. Thiese's Extravaganza, Wine, Woman and Song, holds this stage this week. In the variety bill: Ben Riggs, the Pontil Bond Brothers, Kline and Gotthold, Harry and Sadie Fields, Gallagher and Barrett, Busch and Devere, and Bonita, with her pickaninnies. Big business was the rule last week: it was, in fact, one of the best weeks in the last few months.

MIACO'S TROCADERO (Robert Fulton, manager).—"The Jolly Grass Widows" is here this week. Mlle. Dika and Carrie Fulton head the company. In the vaudeville portion of the programme appear: Mackie and Walker, Montague and West, Paulo and Dika, Harvey and Moore, Chris. Lane, and the Wandgoddle Comedy Four. Robie's Knickerbockers drew good business last week. CLARK STREET DIME MUSEUM (Geo. Middleton, manager).—"Black Diamond," a negro who boasts of the largest mouth in America, is the chief attraction in the curio hall this week. Other curio hall cards are: Bay State Frank, broom corn king; Commodore Foote, dwarf, and Rowland Travers, magician. The line up in the theatre: Lester and Thomas Murphy, the Kestrie Children, Marion Alecia and Frank Hall.

LONDON DIME MUSEUM (Capt. John White, manager).—"The following are this week's curio hall attractions: Belmont's marionettes, Joe De Roche, sword swallower; Madame De Roche, spirit cabinet; Wallico the big python. In the theatre appear: Spencer and Lewis, Annie Martin, George Thornton, and moving pictures.

CHUTES PARK (E. P. Simpson, manager).—This park closed by far the most prosperous season in its history Sunday, Sept. 29. Thanks to the good weather, the last week of the season was one of profit. The turn-over railway proved a big hit, and with this Summer's advertising and popularity should do still better next season.

Gossip.—Justice Underwood gave judgment last week in favor of Arthur W. Tams, who sued Maud Lillian Berri for $200, on an engagement for the singer. Wachner's German Dramatic Company, which holds the stage of Powers' Theatre Sunday nights, has made arrangements for a week's engagement at the Studebaker late in October. A repertory of plays will be presented. The Chicago Orchestra will open its season of 1901-02 at the Auditorium Oct. 25. Concerts will be given Fridays and Saturdays through the winter. "Arizona" will be presented at the Auditorium the week of Oct. 7 for the benefit of the Chicago Policemen's Benevolent Association.

NEW JERSEY.

Newark.—At the Newark Theatre (Lee Ottolengui, manager) the charming musical comedy, "San Toy," holds forth this week, and will no doubt duplicate its former successes here. It was presented with an excellent cast Sept. 30, and entertained a large house. Last week "The Governor's Son" proved a sprightly show, and drew good business. "The Christian" is underlined for the week of Oct. 7.

COLUMBIA THEATRE (M. J. Jacobs, manager).—The stock appeared this week in "Harbor Lights," and the patrons will enjoy the return to Newark of several old stock favorites, including Anna Layne, Amy Stone, Raymond Capp and Frank Richardson. Another budget of moving pictures of the funeral of the late President will also be presented. These events insure a busy week here. Effective work last week, in "A Young Wife," attracted large audiences. "An Enemy to the King" is in rehearsal for next week.

EMPIRE THEATRE (H. M. Hyams, manager).—"Lost River" makes its first appearance here this week. The fame of its thrilling situations and realistic scenes had preceded it, however, and attracted a large audience Monday night, 30. Chas. McCarthy, in "One of the Bravest," proved as interesting as ever last week and received fair attention.

BLANEY'S THEATRE (Chas. E. Blaney, manager).—The new stock company here has been remarkably successful thus far. The house was crowded many times last week to see "The Mormon Wife," and Beryl Hope received thorough appreciation in the title role. "The Fatal Card" was strongly portrayed Monday night, 30, before a large and attentive audience, and should continue the good business. "The Dancing Girl" is in preparation for next week.

WALDMAN'S OPERA HOUSE (W. S. Clark, manager).—Scribner's Morning Glories is entertaining the patrons this week. The show should receive hearty approval, in that much of the old stereotyped business has been dropped, and with a cleanly effect. The olio comprises these people: Harry Hastings, Brooks Bros., Olga Orloff and Geo. M. Hale, Armstrong and Porter, Cooper and Schall. Viole Sheldon heads the burlesque. Monday's opening brought two large houses. Hyde's Comedians set a standard that defies comparison, and packed the house all last week. The Collys' act proved a charming feature, and the hit of the show. The Lafayette Show is booked for next week.

TRILBY MUSIC HALL (John Bey, manager).—Nothing interrupts the current of business here. The weekly change of bill brings forth McCarthy and Reina, Ida Gilday, May Young, Catherine Darrell, Carrie Mantell, Florence De Alden, McDonald and Cooke, and moving pictures of the late President's last speech. NOTES.—Mecca Temple, New York. Order of the Mystic Shrine, will have a theatre party at Blaney's Theatre on Wednesday night. Ralph McNeill was held in $500 bail last week for the Grand Jury, charged with embezzling $103,224 from the Newark Bill Posting Co. He pleaded not guilty. "The House of Bondage" is the name of a new melodrama, by W. J. McKiernan, of this city, and author of "The Gunner's Mate."

Paterson.—At the Bijou (Mrs. Ben Leavitt, manager) Carr's Thoroughbreds closed a fairly successful week Sept. 28. Due: Zittella Flynn's Big Sensation Co. 30 and week, Howard & Emerson's Own Co. Oct. 7-12.

GARDEN THEATRE (P. F. Shea & Co., managers).—Arrivals for 30 and week: The Willett-Thorne Co., Chas. McDonald, Lew Wells, the Seaman Children, Ogar and Delmo, and Thor, banjoist. Business was highly satisfactory Sept. 23 and week.

STAR THEATRE (F. D. Hewes, manager).—Business was fair at this house 23-28. The arrivals: May Warfield, Frank and Leavette Franks, Rossi Sisters, Jack and Jennie Marshall, Jennie Bentley, Morton and Dean, and several others.

Elizabeth.—Playing in Elizabeth has been only ordinary during week of Sept. 23. At the Lyceum Theatre (W. M. Drake, manager) the Rays, in "A Hot Old Time," came 23, to very large business. "A Midnight Charge" booked 25, did not arrive. The Rover Bros. in "Next Door" filled the theatre to the doors 28. Many were turned away. The company gave good satisfaction. To arrive: "The Devil's Doings" 30, "Madeline of Fort Reno" Oct. 3, "Nathan Hale" 5, "Mama's New Husband" 7, "The Walcotts" 9, "The Walcotts" 11, "The Walcotts" 13, "The Walcotts" 15, "The Walcotts" 17, "The Walcotts" 19, "The Walcotts" 21, "The Walcotts" 23, "The Walcotts" 25, "The Walcotts" 27, "The Walcotts" 29, "The Walcotts" 31, "The Walcotts" 33, "The Walcotts" 35, "The Walcotts" 37, "The ## TASCOOTT

Last week made one of the biggest hits ever made at the Grand Opera House, Philadelphia.

PHILA. "ITEM," Sept. 24, says:

"TASCOOTT,"

As an Ethiopian imitator, is simply the best that ever occurred.

Open time beginning Nov. 4. Address

HOWLEY, HAVILAND & DRESSER, 1260 Broadway, N. Y.

Tips.—The Lyceum Theatre has been sold to a Mr. Peckham, of New York, who purchased the Theodore Peckham interest. Several offers have been made for the lease of the theatre, among the number being that of the present manager, W. M. Drake. The matter is yet in abeyance. The theatre, which had been managed by the Elizabeth Library Association, and by the charter was exempt from taxation, will now have to pay taxes to the city, which will add materially to the cost of running the theatre.

Jersey City.—At the Academy of Music (Frank E. Henderson, manager) L. Lawrence Weber's recent acquisition, "Home, Sweet Home," a four act comedy drama, by Edgar Smith, is the current attraction. "Lost River," Oct. 12. "The Fatal Wedding" closed a banner week Sept. 28.

Boston.—Manager John W. Holmes has a novelty offering this week, with May Fiske, who will be assisted by Mrs. Tom Thumb, Count and Baron Magd. Waldo, Whipple, Emory and Nodine, and Bert Kimball. During her stay Miss Fiske will present "The Little Magnet," "Nell Gwynn" and "The Circus Girl." "Circus Girl" follows. "A Royal Prisoner" closed a fair week. "Box Toss" (T. W. Perkins, manager).—Sam Devereaux and his own company, comprising a vast array of clever people, week of 30 Manchester's Cracker Jacks received ample recognition last week.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore.—Ford's Opera House (Chas. E. Ford, manager).—Frank Daniels' new operatic comedy, "Miss Simplicity," which was launched on its career last week, was heard and approved by an audience that completely filled the house Sept. 30. The plot is a pleasing one, the music bright and tuneful, and the costumes attractive, while the star is fitted with a most congenial role. "The Little Duchess," which Anna Held produced for the first time on any stage 24, was remarkable for its spectacular and musical features, as well as the extraordinary beauty of the costumes displayed by the star and chorus. In the shape in which it opened the length was entirely too great, and much pruning will be necessary to bring it within proper time limit. The house was packed during the entire engagement. Oct. 7 and week, Andrew Mack will be seen in "Tom Moore."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC (Nixon & Zimmerman, managers).—The newest of pastoral plays, "York State Folks," commenced a week's run Sept. 30, before a large and thoroughly delighted audience. Francis Wilson filled the house nightly with "The Strollers" week ending 28. Next week, Sadie Martini, in "The Marriage Game."

CHASE'S THEATRE (P. B. Chase, manager).—The doors were thrown open for the season 30, when a radical change was made in the policy of the house, vaudeville giving way to a high class stock company, the roster of which is as follows: Percy Haaswell, leading lady; George Fawcett, director and manager; Percy W. Water, stage manager; Frank Gilmore, Lloyd Carleton, Frederick Lewis, Alfred Hudson, Austin Webb, Regan Hughton, Frank Craven, Alfred Smith, Laura McGilvray, Juliette Atkinson, Alice Butler and Agnes Everett. "The Little Duchess" was chosen for the opening attraction, drawing a large and distinctly friendly audience. The sale of seats for the week is big. "Catherine" is underlined for Oct. 7 and week.

HOLIDAY STREET THEATRE (Kernan, Rife & Houck, managers).—"Two Little Yagants" repeated its success of former seasons on its reappearance, Sept. 30. "The Road to Ruin" closed a week of big business 28, Oct. 7 and week. "The White Slave."

AUDITORIUM MUSIC HALL (James L. Kernan, manager).—Two audiences of excellent proportions greeted "The Telephone Girl" Sept. 30. "Papa's Baby" drew well week ending 28. Hyde's Comedians is due Oct. 7 and week.

MONUMENTAL THEATRE (James L. Kernan, manager).—The Merry Maidens came, to profitable business, afternoon and night of Sept. 30. The Broadway Burlesquers had a week of good business 23-28. The Brigadiers is billed for Oct. 7 and week.

ORION.—New Sept. 30 and week: Belle Emerson, Roberts, Smilax and company, Clarke and Gilmore, Ross and Farren, Rose Matthews, Harry Monroe, and Franklin and Courtland.

INTERNATIONAL CONTEST.

The English Team Scores a Victory by 61 Runs Over the Philadelphia Eleven.

The visiting English team played an eleven representing Philadelphia Sept. 27, 28 and 30, on the grounds of the Merion Club, at Haverford, Pa. The wicket played poorly and was responsible for several of the players being injured. J. V. Parkin, of the English team, received a bad blow on the temple from a bumping ball that completely closed up his left eye, and prevented him from keeping wicket after the first day. On the second day J. H. Scattergood, the wicket keeper of the home team, was also hurt by a bumping ball and had to retire from the field. The visitors, who gained the advantage of batting first, won by 61 runs, the respective totals being: English eleven, 198 and 143; Philadelphia eleven, 137 and 177. A. M. Hollins hit hard for 44 and 32, and was the highest scorer in each inning for the English team. J. A. Lester, who captained the home team, batted splendidly for 46 and 73, not out, and his efforts to win were well seconded by N. Z. Graves, with 11 and 23, and C. C. Morris, with 19 and 12. J. B. King and E. M. More led in bowling for their respective elevens, the former securing no fewer than fourteen wickets in both innings at the cost of 135

INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE GAMES.

Harvard and Yale Athletics Beat Those of Cambridge and Oxford.

There was a great crowd at Berkeley Oval, this city, on Wednesday, Sept. 25, when the fourth international match between the picked college athletes of England and America was decided. On this occasion the representative team of Harvard and Yale were pitted against the best men of Oxford and Cambridge, and the result was a decided victory for the American cricketers. The score at the close being 8 to 3 in their favor. Cambridge leads won the three events taken by the foreign contingent, Oxford being credited with but three second places. The weather was of the best, the slight chill in the air being not unpleasant, while there was no wind to interfere with the efforts of the contestants, and the track and infield being in admirable condition. The management was not altogether commendable, however, the spectators being permitted to invade the infield and to encroach at times upon the path, although no interference took place. A very stupid blunder occurred in the opening event, the "hundred," the runners being started five yards back of the proper starting point, and this might have caused serious trouble had the final result of the competitions been very close, as the winner of the race finished but a yard ahead of one of the English contestants; but as a different result would not have changed matters at the close, no protest was entered by the Britishers, as might otherwise have been the case. As a rule the competitions were not exciting, being generally easily secured by the winners. As expected, the middle and long distance runs were captured by the English team, while the short races, the hurdles and field events went to American representatives, the hurdle contest being the closest of the afternoon. Summary:

One hundred yards run.—Won by N. H. Hargrave, Yale; A. E. Hind, Cambridge, second; J. E. Haigh, Harvard, third. Time, 10.75.

Eight hundred and eighty yards run.—Won by H. W. Workman, Cambridge; J. R. Cleave, Oxford, second; E. B. Boynton, Harvard, third. Time, 1m. 55.5.

Four hundred and forty yards run.—Won by E. C. Rust, Harvard; Dixon Boardman, Yale, second; R. W. Barclay, Cambridge, third. Time, 50.5.

Throwing the hammer.—Won by W. E. Boal, Harvard, 186ft. 8in.; E. B. May, Oxford, second, 128ft. 3in.; W. E. B. Henderson, Oxford, third, 111ft. 7in.

Running high jump.—Won by J. S. Spraker, Yale, 6ft. 1 1/2 in.; R. P. Kernan, Harvard, second, 6ft. 1 1/2 in.; G. H. Smith, Cambridge, third, 5ft. 10 1/2 in.

One mile run.—Won by F. G. Cockshott, Cambridge; H. W. Gregson, Cambridge, second; H. S. Knowles, Harvard, third. Time, 4m. 26 1/2.

One hundred and twenty yards hurdle race.—Won by J. H. Converse, Harvard; G. R. Garner, Oxford, second; E. Alcock, Cambridge, third. Time, 15.5.

Two miles run.—Won by H. W. Workman, Cambridge; E. W. Hills, Harvard, second; C. J. Swan, Harvard, third. Time, 9m. 50s.

Running broad jump.—Won by J. S. Spraker, Yale, 22ft. 4 1/2 in.; A. W. Ristler, Harvard, 21ft. 4in.; second; W. E. B. Henderson, Oxford, 19ft. 6in., third.

The Harvard and Yale Clubs gave a dinner to the Oxford and Cambridge team at Sherry's in the evening. Senator Chauncey M. Depew presided, and the guests included the British Vice Consul, City Bailey; Lees Knowles, M. P.; Lieut. Gov. Woodruff, Henry E. Howland, Robert C. Cornell, Francis H. Appleton, Cornelius C. Cuyler, Capt. John Hallowell, of Harvard, and Capt. Richard Sheldon, of Yale.

W. A. H. Kerr, Toronto G. C., won the Canadian golf championship in a contest with J. P. Taylor, Montreal G. C., thirty-six holes, at Toronto, Ont., Sept. 27. The score was a tie at the close of the game, and they agreed to play two more holes. Kerr winning the last hole and retaining the title.

THE AMERICA CUP.

The Opening Race Terminates in Favor of the American Boat by a Small Margin.

The opening international contest of the eleventh series in home waters for the possession of the coveted America Cup, now held by the Yankee yachtsmen for half a century, was started off by Sandy Hook on Thursday morning, Sept. 26, over a course of fifteen miles to windward and back, but the wind, which at the start was about an eight knot breeze, soon fell away, and thereafter was fluky, the eventual result being that the race was called off at the end of the time limit, five and a half hours, when the Columbia beat a mile ahead of Shamrock II, and seven miles or so from the finish. The showing made by the American craft on that occasion had the effect of raising the hopes and increasing the confidence of her well wishers, while, as the result was indecisive, the popular owner of the foreign boat was in no wise discouraged. In accordance with the rules governing the races, the initial race was sailed over on Saturday, 28, over the same course, and this time there was a same course, and not strong breeze from steady and true, but not strong, breeze from steady and true, and a closer struggle was started to finish, and a closer struggle was never witnessed between two yachts than that which was waged by the challenger and the defender from starting signal to finish. On the last to windward the Shamrock, whose skipper, Captain Sproule, secured an advantage at the start, going over the line a half length in the lead, and in the windward position, gained gradually, Captain

Barr failing in repeated attempts to cross her bow, and at the outer mark the green yacht led by thirty-nine seconds. All this was changed after the turn had been made, and the competing vessels were on the way home, before the wind, with all sails spread, the Columbia immediately commencing to cut down the lead of her opponent and, continuing to gain slowly but surely, she crossed the finish line first, but although Ireland's representative was overhauled and passed, the rival boats kept very close together, their skippers being always within easy earshot, and the excitement among the spectators on the crowded excursion yachts, tugs, etc., was most intense. It was a test of the seamanship and skill of the opposing skippers, too, and both acquitted themselves remarkably well. At last the Columbia succeeded in getting her wind clear, and, going rapidly to the fore, she crossed the finish line about three lengths in advance, after the grandest battle ever waged for the famous trophy. Then, the long tension at an end, the multitude of sightseers gave vent to their pent up enthusiasm in cheers, the steam rescue blew their whistles and rang their bells with one accord, and, to use a hackneyed phrase, "pandemonium reigned" for a season; indeed, some of the boats did not cease whistling until the city was reached. The following summary tells in figures the story of the race:

FIRST LEG. Elapsed Time. Start. Finish. Time. Yachts. H. M. S. H. M. S. H. M. S. Shamrock ..... 11 00 14 12 52 2 24 58 Columbia ..... 11 00 16 13 12 3 31 58 On the fifteen mile beat to windward the Shamrock beat Columbia 39s.

SECOND LEG. Elapsed Time. Turn. Finish. Time. Yachts. H. M. S. H. M. S. H. M. S. Columbia ..... 12 53 33 3 31 23 2 05 30 Shamrock ..... 12 55 12 3 31 58 2 06 46 On the fifteen mile beat to windward the Columbia had beaten Shamrock 1m. 16s.

THE FINISH. Elapsed Cor'd'd Start. Finish. Time. Yachts. H. M. S. H. M. S. H. M. S. Columbia ..... 11 00 16 13 21 3 31 07 4 30 54 Shamrock ..... 11 00 14 8 31 58 4 31 44

The Columbia beat the Shamrock 37 seconds actual time and 1 minute 20 seconds corrected time. Sir Thos. Lipton, being interviewed after the race, said, in his usual sportsmanlike manner: "It was a fair and square race, no fluke; but it was not Shamrock's day. We want a breeze that will put that deck six inches under water, and then you'll see a race. But be sure of one thing—I was licked fairly today."

The second race was to have taken place on Tuesday, Oct. 1 (the day this issue of THE CLIPPER went to press), over a triangular course of thirty miles in extent, ten miles to windward, ten miles reaching, and ten miles running home.

THE KNOXPRINZ WILHELM, the latest addition to the fleet of the North German Lloyd line, arrived at this port on Sept. 26, her maiden voyage. She made the trip, 3,045 miles in 6d. 10h. 18m., mean time, having encountered very stormy weather for nearly four days. During the twenty-four hours ending at noon 24, when she was favored with smooth seas, she made 575 knots, which forms the record for a maiden passage.

MR. VOLUNTEER,

"You Don't Belong to the Regulars, You're Just a Volunteer."

EXTRACT FROM THE NEW YORK "SUN."
"MR. VOLUNTEER."

New Military Song Which is Now
Popular in New York.

One new military song is popular in New York each Summer, or at least there has been one popular each Summer since the beginning of the Spanish-American War. Last year's song was "The Blue and the Gray," telling of Santiago, as well as Appomattox and Chickamauga. This year's song, less geographical and historical, treats of the difference between the Volunteers and the Regulars and takes the side of the Volunteers.

"March on, soldier blue, flag in trouble calls for you," it says, and the soldier, with bayonet glistening and clothes all new, listens to the cheers of the populace as he starts for the war; but on his return he gets neither cheers nor tears, the twin tributes of patriotism to valor. The explanation is given in the chorus, now growing familiar throughout town:

You don't belong to the Regulars, you're just a Volunteer;
You're only one of the rank and file, but some one holds you dear;
Many a mother's heart will ache, and in the coming year
Uncle Sam will take off his hat to you, Mister Volunteer!

One feature of the song is the fact that it is brief, two stanzas long only. The words of the second are these:

Come home, soldier boy in blue, the war is over, you are through.
There is nothing else to do, they have no more use for you.
A mother waits your coming home, with open arms of joy;
She cares not how you look in rags, she only sees her boy.

WARNING

To Managers and the Profession in General.

Look out for those tricky photographic invitations and solicitations that tell you they will photograph you free of charge. Remember, this is only to get you to their place, then, should you order photographs, you will pay many times the amount that FEINBERG, the famous PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER, who has and is pleasing thousands, would.

Save money by calling personally at FEINBERG'S. You will be surprised at the artistic work, novel ideas, and low rates.

FEINBERG, 16 W. Fourteenth Street, Bet. Fifth and Sixth Avenues, New York City.

EVERHART

The World's Wonder, the Man who Makes Hoops Human.

THE MAN WHO SURROUNDS THE LAWS OF GRAVITATION AND MAKES FUN OF THEM. AND HE SAID LET THERE BE HOOPS, AND THERE WAS HOOPS.

THEN THEY AWOKE FROM A BEAUTIFUL SLEEP AT THE (SWITCH) AND WENT AFTER BARREL PROTECTORS.

Have you noticed? Yes! You go to the theatres and you read the papers and naturally you must have noticed what an effect the dear little creations of Everhart's original "thinking power house" have on the vacuum heads. How the thieves did sprint and make records trying to purloin the bread and oleomargarine out of poor Everhart's organ of speech. Even our smartest Managers are sometimes deceived. But, then, as the Good Book prints on page 33, second chapter, a man can be undeceived just as quickly. According to the by-laws of the theatrical business, a good novelty is subject to punishment with a good round salary. So far, very far. Many managers have realized that in paying and paying the original—the "original" price, and not humoring the infringing idiots, they were conducting themselves as good managers should. A few who were tempted by the aluring bait of being offered some sundry alleged competent cut ups, "gave employment" unto those naughty, and we must add, wicked, get money under false pretenses at a very small price, and have no care if they go to Heaven or not when they die! Hoop robbers (not h-o-p rollers), and immediately thereafter felt sorry. Yes, ladies! In Germany they thought the figure requested by the "Only Inventor" a trifle steep, and nearly all hands thought it would be a shame to give so much loose change to one act. What was the result? Fellow citizens? What could the result have been under these distressing circumstances? They booked the shins, and let Everhart proceed to other Countries where the Managers were wide awake and willing to pay a good price for a good thing. Meanwhile, the "apes" were prospering mildly in Deutschland, and the managers were scolding themselves at their folly. All accepting a few who handed the "big chief hooproller" contracts for the sale price. While went to England, where he went to America, and then, to Karlsruhe, and from Karlsruhe he came back to Germany. Now as soon as he made his second appearance among the disciples of good cheer and good beer, the managers who had been inclined to more sinner than judgement, commenced to rub their eyes and awaken. Yes! they did realize that it was time to get in line and have a go at the "thinker out" of the greatest novelty, and the most extensively copied for years. They forthwith said to Everhart, "let us have peace," just as Christopher Columbus once said before he discovered America, then he founded Columbus, Ohio, and in Columbus it was that Everhart discovered the whoop industry. A coincidence you will say. Yes sir! Apocryphal and simple. Fancy! Now, all those that had the imitations at the imitations prices, found that the imitations act fell to the floor like five back wheat cakes at dear Mr. Dennett's, are now, actually, paying the orig., the gigantic orig. price because it was beyond the power of any nation to pull it down. Wouldn't that disturb your Hooprolling ability?

When I think it all over I laugh, laugh and laugh. For contract's come so thick I cannot accept half. My new sand paper finish, rolling twenty-two CANDY hoops, then eating them all alive in full view of the audience is a terrific hit. The above candy hoops are manufactured only by DR. GRABALL, and are recommended by DR. DEADEASY to cure all. Yours, without open time, DR. EVERHOOPS, the man that prescribes hoopins for his students to learn how to fill prescriptions. Dictated by the MAIN EYEATTER of the Bun Jugglers' Union, the only gentleman in the world who keeps twenty-six doughnuts running around him without twisting his ribs up and down his backbone. Regards to Grinn and Bearit. And Mr. Beamsapstein, the Father of our Chewing Gum.

All U. S. Mail to TED D. MARKS, Broadway and 37th St., New York City. European Mail to No. 20 Rue Tal'bout, Paris, France. H. B. MARINELLI.

P. S.—How would you like to be the independent Child Circlecharmer, that wrote the game and keep just enough little wooden things running around to get his Sagadalary for a short distance? Mr. Awfullets Openneys. (HIS) for showing his Understudy's how to make a living.
